THE MINISTER FOR HOME AFFAIRS, in pursuance of Article 15 of the Fire and Rescue Service \(Jersey\) Law 2011, orders as follows –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Interpretation

In this Order “Law” means the Fire and Rescue Service \(Jersey\) Law 2011.

2 Power to charge for providing technical fire safety advice

- (1) The Chief Fire Officer may charge a person for any action taken by or on behalf of the Fire and Rescue Service in the provision of any technical fire safety advice for any commercial, trade, professional or public purpose, however that advice is provided.
- (2) The charge may include a charge for taking any of the following actions in pursuance of the provision of such advice –
  - (a) hiring out or providing equipment, vehicles, or employees of the Fire and Rescue Service;
  - (b) inspecting or testing fire protection systems, installations, equipment, premises or vehicles;
  - (c) hiring out or providing any premises of the Fire and Rescue Service;
  - (d) providing any document, photograph, tape, video or other similar recording;
  - (e) providing training.
- (3) The amount or rate of the charge for taking an action described in the second column of Part 1 of the Schedule in pursuance of the provision of technical fire safety advice shall be the amount or rate specified in the third column of Part 1 of the Schedule.<sup>1</sup>

- (4) A charge for taking an action described in this Article may be imposed on the person requesting the action or on the person for whom the action is taken.

3 Power to charge for humanitarian services

- (1) The Chief Fire Officer may charge for any of the following humanitarian services provided by or on behalf of the Fire and Rescue Service –
- (a) rescuing a person trapped in a lift car;
  - (b) assisting a person to gain access to, or egress from, premises;
  - (c) rescuing an animal;
  - (d) assisting in the removal or detachment of any object from the body of any person in order to reduce the risk of harm or distress to such person;
  - (e) removing flood water from premises, except where the water is flood water resulting from unusually severe weather conditions;
  - (f) making safe a building or structure, or a fitting to a building or structure;
  - (g) providing non-urgent medical assistance to a person;
  - (h) removing, containing or washing away debris, spillages or non-hazardous materials that do not threaten life or the environment;
  - (i) pumping water;
  - (j) supplying water.
- (2) The amount or rate of the charge for taking an action described in the second column of Part 2 of the Schedule in pursuance of the provision of a humanitarian service shall be the amount or rate specified in the third column of Part 2 of the Schedule.<sup>2</sup>
- (3) A charge for taking an action described in this Article may be imposed –
- (a) in the case of a service described in paragraph (1)(a), on the person who has control of the premises (as occupier or otherwise) in which the lift is situated;
  - (b) in the case of a service described in paragraph (1)(b), (d), (g), (h), (i) or (j), on the person requesting the service;
  - (c) in the case of a service described in paragraph (1)(c), on the owner of the animal;
  - (d) in the case of a service described in paragraph (1)(e) and (f) on the person who has control of the premises (as occupier or otherwise) requiring to be made safe or to have water removed.
- (4) No charge may be imposed under this Article for a humanitarian service in respect of which provision is required to be made under Article 7, 8 or 9 of the Law.

4 Power to charge for action taken at sea

- (1) The Chief Fire Officer may charge a person where the Fire and Rescue Service takes any action for the purpose of extinguishing a fire at sea or rescuing a person at sea.
- (2) The charge shall be the actual cost incurred by the Fire and Rescue Service including, but not limited to, the cost of using personnel or property of the Fire and Rescue Service and transport costs.
- (3) A charge for taking an action described in this Article may be imposed upon the person requesting the action or the person for whom the action is taken.

5 Power to charge for attending malfunctioning fire alarm

- (1) The Chief Fire Officer may charge a person where the Fire and Rescue Service attends any place for the purpose of responding to an automatic fire alarm, where it operates because of a malfunction and there is not an emergency at the place concerned.
- (2) The charge for attending such a place shall be the amount specified in Part 3 of the Schedule and may be imposed on the person who has control of the premises (as occupier or otherwise) at which the fire alarm is installed or on the person who caused the malfunction.

6 Citation

This Order may be cited as the Fire and Rescue Service (Charges) (Jersey) Order 2012.
