The Fire Services (Sark) Law, 2016

THE CHIEF PLEAS OF SARK, in pursuance of their Resolutions of the 4th day of May, 2011 and the 13th day of July 2016, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Island of Sark.

PART I FIRE SERVICES

Provision of fire-fighting services.

1. The Committee may make such arrangements for the provision of fire-fighting services as it thinks fit, having regard to –

- (a) the need for the provision of such services in the circumstances of Sark, and
- (b) the availability of funding with which to meet the cost of such services.

Agreements for the provision of fire-fighting services.

2. (1) Arrangements under section 1 may include agreements ("section 2 agreements") entered into by the Committee on behalf of the Chief Pleas with such persons as it thinks fit for the purpose of the provision of fire-fighting services in Sark.

(2) A section 2 agreement may (without limitation) be entered into with any provider of fire-fighting services outside Sark under the terms of which persons, who are not members of the fire service, may provide operational, advisory or any other manner of fire-fighting services in Sark.

(3) Any person providing fire-fighting services under or pursuant to a section 2 agreement –

- (a) shall, unless otherwise provided under the terms of that agreement, be subject to the authority and under the control of the Chief Fire Officer,
- (b) shall possess the powers and privileges of a member of the fire service under Part II, and
- (c) shall at all times be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Court in respect of their conduct in Sark.

PART II

POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

Powers of members of fire service and the Constable.

3. (1) Any member of the fire service, when providing fire-fighting services, or the Constable, may enter, by force if necessary, any premises –

- (a) in which a fire has or is reasonably believed by such person to have broken out,
- (b) in which such person reasonably believes there to be an immediate danger of fire breaking out,
- (c) which it is necessary to enter for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof,
- (d) which it is necessary to enter for the purpose of protecting the premises from any act done for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof, and may do anything which that member, or the Constable, as the case may be, reasonably believes to be necessary for the purpose of fire-fighting, preventing fire or the spread thereof, or protecting any such premises from any act done for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof.

(2) When a fire breaks out, or there is an immediate danger of a fire breaking out –

(a) the fire officer in charge shall have sole charge and control of all operations for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof including (without limitation) –

(i) the fixing of the positions of fire appliances and apparatus,

(ii) the attaching of hoses to any fire hydrant, dry riser or water pipe,

(iii) the use of any water supply, and

(iv) the control of the direction of the water,

(b) the Constable, or in the absence of the Constable, the fire officer in charge, may close to traffic any public road and may stop or regulate the movement or flow of traffic in any public road whenever the Constable or fire officer in charge reasonably believes it to be necessary to do so for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof; and if the presence of any person or vehicle in any public road prevents or hinders operations for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof, the person or the vehicle may be removed by the Constable or any member of the fire service present.

(3) Any person who by virtue of subsection (2)(a) is required to provide water for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof in the property of another person, is entitled to be compensated by the Chief Pleas for any pecuniary loss arising therefrom.

(4) Damage caused to any person or property by any member of the fire service, or the Constable, engaged in operations for the purpose of fire-fighting or preventing fire or the spread thereof, or exercising any power conferred by this section, shall be deemed, for the purposes of any policy of insurance against fire, to be damage caused by fire.

(5) Nothing in this section derogates from the power of the Constable arising independently of this Law to assist members of the fire service in the exercise of the powers conferred by this section.

(6) In this Part –

"premises" includes any building or part thereof, place, vessel, vehicle or aircraft, and

"water supply" includes a supply of water located, stored or flowing upon, below the surface of or through any privately owned land including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lake, pond or swimming pool.

PART III

FIRE PRECAUTIONS IN CONTROLLED PREMISES

Premises to which fire precautions apply.

4. (1) Subject to section 5, this Part of this Law applies to any premises ("controlled premises") which fall within any of the categories set out in subsection (2).

(2) The categories referred to in subsection (1) are –

- (a) a dwelling the occupation of which is the subject of a short-term lease,
- (b) any premises which are used by an employer as, or for any purpose involving the provision of, sleeping accommodation for one or more persons employed by that employer,
- (c) any premises which are used as, or for any purpose involving the provision of, sleeping accommodation where such use would be prohibited without an accommodation permit granted pursuant to the provisions of the Tourism (Sark) Law, 1982^a,
- (d) any premises comprising, or comprised within, a building which contains more than one set of premises,

^a Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXVII, p. 576; Vol. XXIX, p. 488; Vol. XXXI, p. 320; No. XII of 2012; No. III of 2015; the Tourism (Accommodation Permits) (Sark) Ordinance, 2011.

at least one of which sets of premises is used as, or for any purpose involving the provision of, sleeping accommodation, whether or not such premises providing sleeping accommodation would fall within paragraphs (a) to (c),

- (e) premises used for the purpose of providing treatment or care for persons requiring such treatment or care and providing sleeping accommodation for such persons,
- (f) premises used as, or as part of, a place in which child-minding facilities are provided,
- (g) premises used for the purposes of, or for any purpose involving –
 - (i) entertainment or recreation,
 - (ii) any club, society or association,
 - (iii) teaching, training or research,
 - (iv) the sale of food and drink for immediate consumption on the premises, or
 - (v) access to the premises by members of the public, whether on payment or otherwise,
- (h) premises used as, or as part of, a place in which space is provided for tented or other temporary accommodation,

- (i) premises used as, or as part of, a place in which are stored or used not less than –
 - (i) 500 litres of flammable liquid with a flash point below 21 degrees Celsius,
 - (ii) 3,000 litres of flammable liquid with a flash point of 21 degrees Celsius or above,
 - (iii) 500 kilograms of liquid petroleum gas,
 - (iv) any toxic, flammable or compressed gases (excluding liquid petroleum gas),
 - (v) 25 kilograms of fireworks or pyrotechnics,
 - (vi) any pesticides or other plant protection products authorised for professional use,
- (j) premises used for the purpose of obtaining access to controlled premises, and
- (k) any premises designated for the purposes of this section by Ordinance.

(3) The Chief Pleas may by Ordinance amend subsection (2) so as to amend or add to the categories of premises which are controlled premises.

Occupiers to provide means of escape, etc.

5. (1) An occupier of controlled premises shall ensure that the premises are provided with –

- (a) such means of escape in case of fire,
- (b) such means for securing that the means of escape can be safely and effectively used at all times,
- (c) such means for fighting fire (whether the fire affects the premises or the means of escape) for use in case of fire, and
- (d) such means for giving to persons in the premises warning in case of fire, or in case of other hazards associated with fuel-burning appliances, as may reasonably be required in the circumstances of the case, and shall ensure that such means are kept free from obstruction and properly maintained so that they can be safely and effectively used at all times.

(2) In determining, in respect of any premises, what means referred to in subsection (1) are reasonably required in the circumstances of the case, regard shall be had (amongst other things) to the number of persons who may reasonably be expected to be resorting to the premises at any time and to any regulations made, or codes of guidance issued, by the Committee under section 7.

(3) The occupier must make a regular, suitable and efficient assessment of the measures required to be taken in order to comply with the requirements of this section and must ensure that appropriate information is made available to any person who is or may be lawfully on the premises concerning the measures taken in order to comply with such requirements.

Action where means of escape, etc., not satisfactory.

6. (1) Where the Committee is satisfied on the written report of the Chief Fire Officer that, in respect of controlled premises, there has been a contravention of section 5, the Committee shall serve on the person in default a notice requiring him, within the time specified in the notice, to take the steps specified therein (whether by way of making structural alterations to the premises or otherwise), being steps which, in the opinion of the Committee, are necessary to remedy the contravention.

(2) Where the steps required to be taken by a notice served under subsection (1) include the provision of any of the means referred to in section 5, the notice may, in addition, require the means specified in the notice to be kept free from obstruction and properly maintained so that they can be safely and effectively used at all material times.

Power of Committee to make regulations and codes.

7. (1) The Committee may –

- (a) by regulations specify precautions which the occupiers of controlled premises, or any specified class of such premises, are to take or observe to reduce the risk of fire or other hazards associated with fuel-burning appliances and the risk to persons in case of fire or such other hazards,
- (b) prepare codes for the guidance of such occupiers containing recommendations as to the precautions which ought to be taken or observed to eliminate or reduce the risk of fire or other hazards associated with fuel-burning appliances and the risk to persons in case of fire or such other hazards, and

- (c) make such regulations, or prepare such codes of guidance which, in the opinion of the Committee, are necessary or desirable for the purpose of facilitating the provision by the Committee of fire-fighting services generally.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), regulations under this section may in particular, in respect of any premises to which they apply, make provision –

- (a) as to the standards which must be met by, and as to the provision, keeping free from obstruction, maintenance, testing and examination of –
 - (i) means of escape in case of fire or other hazards associated with fuel-burning appliances,
 - (ii) means of securing that any means of escape can be safely and effectively used at all material times,
 - (iii) means for fighting fire,
 - (iv) means of giving warning in case of fire or other hazards associated with fuel-burning appliances,
- (b) for prohibiting the presence or use in the premises of materials, substances, furniture or equipment of any specified description, or prohibiting its presence or use unless specified standards or conditions are complied with,

- (c) for securing that persons employed to work in the premises –
 - (i) receive appropriate instruction or training in what to do in case of fire,
 - (ii) are familiar with the means of escape from the premises in case of fire and with the routine to be followed in case of fire,
 - (d) for securing that, in specified circumstances, specified numbers of attendants are stationed in specified parts of the premises,
 - (e) as to the keeping of records of instruction or training given, or other things done, in pursuance of the regulations, and
 - (f) as to the procedures to be observed and the precautions to be taken during the installation, removal or demolition of tanks or other containers of oil, liquid petroleum gas, or other explosive or flammable liquids or gases.
- (3) Regulations under this section –
- (a) may impose requirements on persons other than occupiers of premises to which they apply,
 - (b) may, in respect of any of their provisions, specify who is to be responsible for any contravention thereof.

(4) Regulations and codes under this section shall be laid before a meeting of the Chief Pleas as soon as practicable, and if at that or the next meeting the Chief Pleas resolve to annul them, they shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under them or to the making of any new regulations or codes.

(5) The provisions of regulations and codes under this section are in addition to, and not in derogation from, the provisions of section 5.

(6) Regulations and codes under this section may adopt or incorporate (by reference, annexation or otherwise), and may make provision by reference to, the provisions of codes of practice, circulars and other materials issued by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, or by the committee of the States of Guernsey responsible for such matters pursuant to the Fire Services (Guernsey) Law, 1989^b, which provisions shall thereupon have the same force and effect as regulations or codes, as the case may be, under this section.

Action where regulations contravened.

8. (1) Where the Committee is satisfied on the written report of the Chief Fire Officer that, in respect of any controlled premises, there has been a contravention of regulations under section 7, the Committee shall, without prejudice to any proceedings under section 12 in respect of the contravention, serve on the person in default (or the person who, by virtue of regulations under section 7(3)(b) is responsible for the contravention) a notice requiring him, within the time specified in the notice, to take the steps specified therein (whether by way of making structural alterations to the premises or otherwise), being steps which, in the opinion of the Committee, are necessary to remedy the contravention.

^b Ordres en Conseil, Vol. XXXI, p. 432; Vol. XXXVII, p. 454; No. V of 2015.

(2) Where the steps required to be taken by a notice served under subsection (1) include the provision of any of the means referred to in section 7(2)(a), the notice may, in addition, require the means specified in the notice to be kept free from obstruction and properly maintained so that they can be safely and effectively used at all material times.

Power to prohibit use of dangerous premises.

9. (1) Where the Chief Fire Officer is satisfied that, in respect of any controlled premises, the risk of fire or the risk to persons in case of fire is so serious that, until steps have been taken to reduce the risk to a reasonable level, the use of the premises ought to be prohibited or restricted, he shall, without prejudice to any proceedings under section 12 in respect of the premises, serve on the occupier of the premises and on such other persons as he thinks fit a notice prohibiting their use, or restricting their use to the extent appropriate in the circumstances of the case, until the steps specified in the notice, being steps which in his opinion are necessary to reduce the risk to a reasonable level, have been taken.

(2) A notice served under subsection (1) –

- (a) has effect immediately upon service,
- (b) ceases to have effect on the expiration of 7 days after the day of service, unless previously extended or confirmed by the Committee under subsection (3).

(3) Where a notice has been served under subsection (1), the Chief Fire Officer shall as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 7 days after service of the notice, refer the matter to the Committee which may –

- (a) cancel or modify the notice,

- (b) extend the period of effectiveness of the notice for a specified period not exceeding 14 days to enable the steps specified therein to be taken, or
- (c) confirm the notice and direct that the use of the premises in respect of which the notice relates is prohibited or restricted to such extent as may be specified in the notice until the specified steps have been taken, and notice of such decision shall be served on the occupier.

(4) The Committee may withdraw a notice modified, extended or confirmed under subsection (3) at any time.

Powers of fire inspector.

10. (1) A fire inspector, on production of his authority if so required, may, subject to subsection (2), at any reasonable time enter any controlled premises, or any premises which he has reasonable cause to believe to be controlled premises and –

- (a) inspect the whole or any part of the premises and anything in them,
- (b) make such enquiry as is necessary to ascertain –
 - (i) whether the premises are controlled premises,
 - (ii) whether there is or has been, in respect of the premises, a contravention of section 5, any regulations under section 7, or any notice served under section 6(1), 8(1), or 9(1),

(iii) the identity of the occupier of the premises,

(c) require any person in the premises to render such facilities and assistance as that person is able to render to enable the fire inspector to exercise his powers under this subsection,

(d) take samples of any material or substance found thereon for the purposes of analysis.

(2) The power of entry conferred by subsection (1) is not exercisable in respect of a bedroom unless 24 hours' notice is given to the person in actual occupation of the premises concerned.

Register of controlled premises.

11. (1) The Committee shall prepare and maintain a register to be called the Register of Controlled Premises ("the Register").

(2) The Register shall contain, in respect of controlled premises, the information required to be stated under subsection (5), and such other information relating to controlled premises as the Committee considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Law.

(3) The Register is to be available for public inspection.

(4) A person who –

(a) at the commencement of this section, is an occupier of controlled premises,

- (b) at any time thereafter –
 - (i) becomes, or ceases to be, an occupier of controlled premises,
 - (ii) is an occupier of premises which become or cease to be controlled premises, shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, and in any event within 28 days after commencement or the event mentioned in subsection (b), serve written notice of the fact on the Committee.

(5) A notice under subsection (4) shall state the address of the controlled premises in respect of which the notice is given, the name and address of the occupier and the use to which the premises are put and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

PART IV GENERAL PROVISIONS

Offences.

- 12. A person who –
- (a) intentionally obstructs or impedes –
 - (i) a member of the fire service,
 - (ii) the Constable, or

(iii) any other person,

engaged in operations for the purpose of fire-fighting services or preventing fire or the spread thereof and exercising any power conferred by section 3,

- (b) without reasonable excuse gives or causes to be given a false alarm of fire to the fire service or to a member thereof or to a person providing fire-fighting services under or pursuant to a section 2 agreement,
- (c) contravenes a requirement of a notice served on him under section 6(1) or 8(1) or a requirement of such a notice as modified on his appeal against the notice under section 18,
- (d) contravenes a provision or requirement of regulations under section 7,
- (e) where there has been a contravention of a provision or requirement of regulations under section 7, is responsible for the contravention by virtue of regulations under section 7(3)(b),
- (f) being a person upon whom a notice under section 9 has been served, uses the premises, or causes or permits them to be used, in contravention of any prohibition or restriction imposed by the notice,
- (g) intentionally obstructs or impedes a fire inspector exercising any power conferred by section 10(1),

- (h) without reasonable excuse fails to reply to any enquiry made by a fire inspector under section 10(1)(b),
- (i) without reasonable excuse contravenes any requirement of a fire inspector under section 10(1)(c),
- (j) in reply to an enquiry made by a fire inspector under section 10(1)(b), or in a notice served on the Committee under section 11(4), gives any information which is false in any material particular,
- (k) discloses, otherwise than –
 - (i) in the performance of his duty, or
 - (ii) for the purposes of any legal proceedings (including an arbitration) or report of such proceedings,any information obtained by him in any premises entered by him in the exercise of any power conferred by or under this Law,
- (l) without reasonable excuse, fails to serve notice in accordance with section 11(4) or serves such notice which does not state the information required to be stated under section 11(5), or
- (m) intentionally obstructs access by –

- (i) a member of the fire service, or
- (ii) a person providing fire-fighting services under or pursuant to a section 2 agreement, to a fire hydrant, dry riser or water pipe, is, subject to section 16, guilty of an offence under this section and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale or, on conviction on indictment, to a fine, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.

Contraventions of codes.

13. A contravention by any person of a provision of a code under section 7 does not of itself render him liable to civil or criminal proceedings, but the contravention may, in any proceedings in which there is in issue a liability or contention in relation to which the provision of the code appears to the Court to be relevant, be relied upon by any party to the proceedings as tending to establish or negative the liability or contention.

Offences by bodies corporate.

14. (1) Where an offence under section 12 committed by a body corporate, limited partnership with legal personality or foundation is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, controller, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, any general partner in the case of a limited partnership, any foundation official or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, that officer or person as well as the body corporate, limited partnership or foundation (as the case may be) is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies to a member in connection with his functions of management as if were a director of the body corporate.

Offences due to default of another person.

15. Where the commission by any person of an offence under section 12 is due to the act or default of another person, the latter is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly, whether or not proceedings are taken against the former.

Defences in certain cases.

16. (1) It is, subject to subsection (2), a defence for a person charged with an offence –

- (a) under section 12(c), (d), (e) or (f), to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence,
- (b) under section 12(j), to prove that he did not know that the information was false and could not, with reasonable diligence, have obtained knowledge of that fact.

(2) Where the defence provided by subsection (1)(a) involves an allegation that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of another person, the person charged may not, without the leave of the Court, rely on the defence unless, at least 7 days before the hearing, he serves written notice on Her Majesty's Procureur giving such information as to the identity of the other person as is in his possession.

(3) A person is not guilty of an offence under section 12(c) by reason of a contravention of any requirement of the notice in question occurring –

- (a) before the expiration of the time for appealing against the notice under section 18, or
- (b) where an appeal against the notice is instituted, before the determination of the appeal.

Civil remedies not affected.

17. The provision by this Law of a sanction for a contravention of this Law or any regulation or notice under it does not prejudice any civil remedy or right of action that may arise in respect of the contravention.

Appeals.

18. (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Committee under this Law may appeal to the Court.

- (2) The grounds of an appeal under this section are that –
 - (a) the decision was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,
 - (b) the decision was unreasonable,
 - (c) the decision was made in bad faith,
 - (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or
 - (e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.

- (3) An appeal under this section shall be instituted –
 - (a) within a period of 28 days, or such longer period as the Court may (on application for reasonable cause) determine, immediately following the date of the notice of the decision, and
 - (b) by summons served on the Chairman of the Committee stating the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies.
- (4) On an appeal under this section the Court may –
 - (a) set the decision of the Committee aside and, if the Court considers it appropriate to do so, remit the matter to the Committee with such directions as the Court thinks fit, or
 - (b) confirm the decision, in whole or in part,

and may (for the avoidance of doubt) modify the terms of any notice served on any person under this Law.

Power of the Court to modify leases.

19. (1) A person who, by reason of any term or condition of a lease, licence or other agreement, is prevented from executing or doing in respect of controlled premises any works or other thing the execution or doing of which is required by or under this Law may apply to the Court which may make such order modifying the lease, licence or agreement as it thinks just in the circumstances of the case.

(2) Where the execution or doing in respect of controlled premises of any works or other thing, the execution or doing of which is required by or under this Law, would involve a person who has an interest in the premises in expense or in increased expense which he alleges ought to be borne in whole or in part by another person who has an interest in the premises, he may apply to the Court which may make such order –

- (a) as to the persons by whom, and the proportions in which, the expense or increase is to be borne, and
- (b) for the modification of any term or condition of a lease, licence or other agreement relating to rent or other amounts payable in respect of the premises, as the Court thinks just in the circumstances of the case.

Service of notices.

20. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a notice to be served under this Law is validly served –

- (a) on an individual, if delivered to him, or if left at, or sent by post to, his usual or last known place of abode,
- (b) on an unincorporated body, if served on any partner, manager or other similar officer thereof, or if left at, or sent by post to, its principal or last known principal place of business in Sark,
- (c) on a body corporate, if left at, or sent by post to, its registered office or its principal or last known principal place of business in Sark,

- (d) on Her Majesty's Procureur, if left at, or sent by post to, the Chambers of the Law Officers of the Crown,
- (e) on the Committee, if delivered to, or sent by post to, the office of the Committee.

(2) If a notice cannot be served in accordance with subsection (1) or cannot be so served within a reasonable time (regard being had to the circumstances of the case), it is validly served –

- (a) if published by notice on at least two occasions in the official notice boxes and in La Gazette Officielle, or
- (b) where the name or address of the person to be served cannot after reasonable enquiry be ascertained or where the circumstances of the case so require if delivered to some responsible person on the premises in question or, if there is no such person, if affixed to a conspicuous part of the premises.

(3) Where two or more persons are the occupiers of any premises, a notice served on one of them in accordance with this section shall, for the purposes of this Law, be deemed to have been validly served on all of them.

(4) Where the occupier of any premises is an infant or a person under guardianship, a notice to be served on him under this Law shall be served on his guardian; and if there is no guardian, the Committee may apply to the Court for the appointment of a guardian to act for the purposes of this Law.

(5) In subsection (1), the expression "by post" means by recorded delivery service or ordinary letter post.

Information to be stated in notice.

21. A notice under section 6(1), 8(1) or 9(1) shall, in addition to stating the matters which are to be stated under those sections –

- (a) identify the premises in respect of which it is served,
- (b) give particulars of the facts by reason of which it is served,
- (c) state the right of appeal to the Court under section 18, and the time within which it may be exercised, and
- (d) state the capacity in which the person served with the notice is served.

Development and building.

22. No obligation, requirement, prohibition or restriction imposed by this Law, or by any regulation or notice under it, relieves any person of any obligation, requirement, prohibition or restriction imposed from time to time by or under the Development Control (Sark) Law, 1991^c, the Tourism (Sark) Law, 1982 or any other enactment.

Consultation between committees and other bodies.

23. (1) When plans are deposited with the Development Control Committee –

- (a) in respect of the proposed erection, extension or

^c Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXIII, p. 155, Order in Council No. X of 2009.

alteration of any premises, or

- (b) in respect of a proposed change of use of any premises, and it appears to the Development Control Committee that the premises, as erected, extended or altered, or as used in accordance with the proposed change of use, will be controlled premises, the Development Control Committee shall (except where the Development Control Committee is also the Committee appointed by resolution of the Chief Pleas under section 27(1)) consult the Committee before approving the plans.

(2) When under any enactment an application is made to an Authority –

- (a) for the grant or renewal of a licence or permit in respect of any premises, or
- (b) for the registration of any premises, and it appears to the Authority that, if the application succeeds, the premises will be controlled premises, the Authority shall consult the Committee before granting the application.

(3) Upon being consulted on any application under subsection (1) or (2), the Committee may require the payment of the prescribed fee before giving its views on the application.

(4) When it is proposed to serve a notice under section 6(1) or 8(1) requiring the execution of works on any premises, the Committee shall (except where the Development Control Committee is also the Committee appointed by resolution of the Chief Pleas under section 27(1)) consult the Development Control Committee before serving the notice.

- (5) In subsection (2), "Authority" includes –
- (a) any authority, board, committee, council, or like body of the Chief Pleas,
 - (b) the Court, and
 - (c) any body, corporation, commission or like body created by virtue of any enactment.

Agreement to provide equipment or services.

24. The Chief Pleas may by Ordinance make provision enabling the Committee, by written agreement with any person, to provide such services, including (without limitation) –

- (a) the provision of equipment on hire or loan,
- (b) any service in connection with any equipment,
- (c) the inspection, testing or maintenance of fire or smoke alarm systems or emergency lighting, or of equipment used for fire-fighting,
