5th day of November, 2012 before John Russell Finch, Esquire, Judge of the Royal Court; present:- Susan Mowbray, Barbara Jean Bartie, David Osmond Le Conte, Stephen Murray Jones, Esquires, Claire Helen Le Pelley, Terry George Snell, David Percy Langley Hodgetts LVO, Esquires, Margaret Ann Spaargaren, Terry John Ferbrache, Esquire, Jurats.

Judge Finch having this day placed before the Court an Order of Her Majesty in Council dated 17th October, 2012 approving and ratifying a Projet de Loi entitled “The Prison (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2010”, THE COURT, after the reading of the said Order in Council and after having heard Her Majesty’s Comptroller thereon, ORDERED that the said Order be registered on the records of this Island.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace

THE 17th DAY OF OCTOBER 2012

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The following report from the Committee of Council for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey was today read at the Board:

“In accordance with Your Majesty’s General Order of Reference of 22nd February 1952 the Committee have considered a Petition of the States of Guernsey:

“That, in pursuance of their Resolution of 30th January 2008, the States of Deliberation at a meeting on 29th September 2010 approved a Projet de Loi entitled the Prison (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2010 and requested the Bailiff to present a most humble Petition to Your Majesty in Council praying for Your Royal Sanction to it. That the Projet de Loi is as set forth in the attached Schedule. The Petition most humbly prays that Your Majesty might be graciously pleased to sanction the Prison (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2010, and to order that it shall have force of law in the Island of Guernsey.

“The Committee have considered the Projet de Loi and have agreed to report that it may be advisable for Your Majesty to approve and ratify it”.

Her Majesty, having taken the report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve and ratify the Projet de Loi (a copy of which is annexed to this Order) and to order that it, together with this Order, shall have the force of law in the Island of Guernsey and shall be entered on the Register of the Island of Guernsey and observed accordingly.

Her Majesty’s Officers in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and all others whom it may concern, are therefore to take notice of Her Majesty’s Order and to proceed accordingly.

PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Prison (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2010

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 30th January, 2008^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the island of Guernsey.

Declaration of prisons.

1. (1) The Department, by notice in La Gazette Officielle, may declare any land or building or any part of any land or building to be a prison –

(a) indefinitely, until the declaration is revoked under subsection (2), or

(b) temporarily, for a specified period of time or until the occurrence of a specified event.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1)(a) or (b) –

(a) may include a declaration of the class or category of the prison, for the purposes of this Law,

^a Article XVI of Billet d'État No. I of 2008.

- (b) takes effect from the date specified in the notice, and
- (c) may at any time be revoked or amended by the Department, by notice in La Gazette Officielle.

Objects of the prison system.

2. The objects of the prison system are –

- (a) to protect the public,
- (b) to keep prisoners in a safe, decent, and healthy environment, and
- (c) to promote pro-social and law-abiding behaviour by prisoners, both in custody and after release.

Principles of the prison system.

3. (1) The principles that guide the operation of the prison system are –

- (a) the maintenance of public safety is the paramount consideration in decisions about prisoners,
- (b) prisoners and all others who come into contact with the prison system are to be dealt with fairly, openly, humanely, and with respect for their human dignity,
- (c) prisoners, even the most vulnerable, are to be held safely,

- (d) prisoners are able, and expected, to engage in activity that is likely to benefit them,
- (e) prisoners are to be prepared for their release into the community and helped to reduce the likelihood of reoffending, and
- (f) prisoners are to be given, and made aware of, their minimum entitlements under the prison system.

(2) A person who exercises or performs functions under this Law must take into account any principle set out in subsection (1) that is applicable, so far as is practicable in the circumstances.

(3) Subsection (1) does not affect the application or operation of any other enactment.

Functions of the Department.

4. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Law, the Department is responsible for the overall supervision and control of the prison.

(2) The Department has the following functions –

- (a) declaring any land or building, or any part of any land or building, to be a prison under section 1,
- (b) making any subordinate legislation and issuing any code or guidance under an Ordinance, and
- (c) any other functions conferred by or under this Law.

(3) The Department may give general directions to the Governor in relation to the exercise of his functions under this Law.

(4) Subsection (3) does not authorise the Department to give directions about the exercise of functions in relation to a particular person.

(5) As soon as practicable after giving a direction under subsection (3), the Department must publish in La Gazette Officielle and lay before a meeting of the States of Deliberation a copy of the direction.

The Governor.

5. (1) The Governor is responsible for –

- (a) the management, security and good order of the prison,
- (b) the safe custody and welfare of prisoners, in respect of the prison, and
- (c) the manner in which other persons who come into contact with prisoners, staff members and officers of the prison, are dealt with.

(2) The Governor has the following functions -

- (a) making or issuing for the prison any Order or other subordinate legislation, or any code or guidance, authorised by or under an Ordinance,

- (b) providing strategic direction for and giving directions to staff members and officers assigned to the prison, and
 - (c) any other functions conferred by or under this Law.
- (3) The States, by Ordinance –
- (a) must make provision for the appointment, suspension and dismissal of the Governor, and
 - (b) may prescribe or regulate the terms and conditions of service of the Governor, such as remuneration, expenses and pensions.

General power to make Ordinances relating to the prison and prisoners.

6. The States may by Ordinance make such provision as they think fit concerning all or any of the following matters –

- (a) prisoners remanded in custody pending trial, sentencing or appeal, in relation to an offence,
- (b) the classification, treatment, employment, discipline and control of prisoners,
- (c) temporary or early release of prisoners, including remission of sentences,
- (d) the government, control, and administration of the prison,

- (e) the structured management of prison life, and
- (f) the administration of this Law.

Specific matters for which Ordinances may make provision.

7. Without limiting the generality of section 6, an Ordinance under that section may make provision in relation to all or any of the matters set out in Schedule 1.

General provisions as to Ordinances, etc.

8. (1) An Ordinance under this Law –
- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance,
 - (b) may amend in any manner, repeal or (as the case may be) revoke –
 - (i) any enactment specified in Schedule 2, or
 - (ii) any Ordinance or subordinate legislation made under the enactment, and
 - (c) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional and savings provisions as may appear to be necessary or expedient (including, without limitation, provision making consequential amendments to this Law and any other enactment).

(2) Any power to make an Ordinance under this Law may be exercised –

(a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to prescribed exceptions, or in relation to any prescribed cases or classes of cases, and

(b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –

(i) the full provision to which the power extends or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),

(ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases, or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,

(iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions, or

(iv) different provision for different classes, descriptions and categories of –

(A) sentences,

(B) prisons, or

- (C) prisoners, staff members, officers or other persons.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the other provisions of this Law, an Ordinance made under this Law –

- (a) may, subject to subsection (4), make provision in relation to the creation, trial (summarily or on indictment) and punishment of offences,
- (b) may empower the Department, any other department of the States, any other body or authority (including, without limitation, any court in the Island), the Governor or any other person to –
 - (i) make subordinate legislation, or
 - (ii) issue codes or guidance,

in relation to any matter for which an Ordinance may be made under this Law,

- (c) may make provision for the purpose of dealing with matters arising out of or related to matters set out in section 6,
- (d) may provide that no liability shall be incurred by any person in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in the discharge or purported discharge of any of his functions unless the thing is done or omitted to be done in bad faith,

- (e) may make provision under the powers conferred by this Law despite the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force,
 - (f) may repeal, replace, amend, extend, adapt, modify or disapply any rule of custom or law, and
 - (g) without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make any such provision of any such extent as might be made by Projet de Loi, but may not provide that a person is to be guilty of an offence as a result of any retrospective effect of the Ordinance.
- (4) An Ordinance under this Law may not –
- (a) provide for offences to be triable only on indictment,
 - (b) authorise the imposition, on summary conviction of an offence, of a term of imprisonment or a fine exceeding the limits of jurisdiction for the time being imposed on the Magistrate's Court by section 9(1)(a) or (2) of the Magistrate's Court (Guernsey) Law, 2008^b, or
 - (c) authorise the imposition, on conviction on indictment

^b Order in Council No. XVIII of 2009; as amended by Ordinance No. XXII of 2009.

of an offence, of a term of imprisonment exceeding 10 years.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, an Ordinance under this Law may not –

- (a) lower the age below which a child can be guilty of any offence, as specified in section 3 of the Criminal Justice (Children and Juvenile Court Reform) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2008^c, or
- (b) lower the age below which a person convicted of an offence punishable with imprisonment can be sentenced to a custodial sentence, as specified in section 1(2) of the Criminal Justice (Youth Detention) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1990^d.
