Application for the grant, revocation, suspension, or variation of licences.

7.-(1) The Authority may refuse to consider an application for the grant, revocation, suspension or variation of an air transport licence unless –

- (a) in the case of an application for the grant of a licence it has been served on the Authority not less than 6 months before the beginning of the period for which the licence is proposed to be in effect, and in any other case it has been served on the Authority not less than 6 months before the date on which it is proposed that the revocation, suspension or variation shall take effect;

(3) The Authority shall as soon as may be after an application for the grant, revocation, suspension or variation of an air transport licence has been served upon it in accordance with this regulation publish such particulars of the application as it thinks necessary for indicating the substance of the application, and shall make a copy of the application available at its head office for inspection by any person at any reasonable time:

Provided that –

- (i) the Authority may dispense with publication in any case where it is satisfied that for reasons of urgency it is desirable to do so and it is of the opinion that to do so is unlikely to prejudice the interests of any persons of a description specified in regulation 14(1) of these Regulations;
- (ii) the Authority may dispense with publication in the case of an application –
 - (a) for the grant of a licence for not more than 4 flights in any one direction between the same two places;

(4) The Authority may direct that an application shall be treated as being such number of separate applications as it may specify in the direction, and the application shall be treated accordingly,

(5) Any persons of a description specified in regulation 14(1) of these Regulations may apply to the Authority for the variation, suspension or revocation of an air transport licence, but no person may apply for the variation of such a schedule of terms as is mentioned in regulation 9 of these Regulations.

Revocation, suspension or variation of licences without application being made.

8.-(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, if the Authority proposes to revoke, suspend or vary an air transport licence, otherwise than in pursuance of an application made to it in that regard or of a direction given to it by the Secretary of State, it shall –

- (c) as soon as may be after the expiration of the said notice or at such earlier time as the Authority and the holder of the licence may agree, publish particulars of the proposal unless it has abandoned the proposal:

Provided that the Authority may –

- (i) with the consent of the holder of the licence, dispense with publication of its proposal to revoke or suspend the licence.

(2) The Authority may suspend a licence notwithstanding that it has not complied with the requirements of paragraph(1) of this regulation if it has served on the holder of the licence not less than 144 hours notice of its proposal to suspend the licence, together with its reasons for the proposal, and after considering any representations which may be made to it by the holder of the licence before the expiration of such notice is not, or is no longer, satisfied as mentioned in section 23(3)(a) or (b) of the Act.

- (a) serve on the holder of the licence 21 days' notice of its intention to consider the matter;
- (b) consider any representations which may be made to it by the holder of the licence before the expiration of the said period.

Variations of schedules of terms.

9.-(1) If the Authority establishes any schedule of terms and includes in any air transport licence a term that the holder of the licence shall comply with terms set out in that schedule as varied from time to time by the Authority, the Authority may at any time propose to vary that schedule or any part thereof, and any such proposal shall for the purposes of these Regulations be treated as a proposal for the variation of every air transport licence which contains such a term as aforesaid relating to that schedule or that part of that schedule, as the case may be, except that proviso (ii) to regulation 8(1) of these Regulations shall not apply to any such proposal.

(2) When any air transport licence contains such a term as aforesaid relating to a schedule, the Authority shall publish that schedule and any variations to it in its official record or otherwise.

and such consultations shall be completed before the date fixed for the hearing of the case pursuant to regulation 14 of these Regulations:

Provided that consultation as aforesaid shall not be required in a case where –

- (i) the application or licence in question is for not more than four flights in any one direction between the same two places, or
- (ii) the Authority is acting in pursuance of its duty under section 22(2) or (3) or 23(3) of this Act.

12. Before the date fixed for the hearing of a case pursuant to regulation 14 of these Regulations, the Authority shall furnish to any person or body who has the right to be heard in connection with the case or whom the Authority proposes to hear or is required to consult pursuant to regulation 11 of these Regulations, a copy of, or a summary of, any information in the possession of the Authority which has been furnished in connection with the case or which the Authority has reason to believe will be referred to at the hearing of the case:

Provided that

- (i) before furnishing any such information the Authority shall consult the person or body who has provided it; and
- (ii) the Authority shall not furnish any information which in its opinion relates to the commercial or financial affairs of the person or body who has provided it and cannot be disclosed to the prospective recipient without disadvantage to the person or body who has provided it which, by comparison with the advantage to the public and the prospective recipient of his disclosure to him, is unwarranted.

Preliminary meetings.

13.-(1) Before the date fixed for the hearing of a case pursuant to regulation 14 of these Regulations, the Authority may hold a preliminary meeting to discuss the conduct of the case.

(2) The Authority shall give to every party to the case and to every person who has entered an objection or made a representation to regulation 10 of these Regulations notice of the date, time and place of the preliminary meeting and any such person may attend in person or be represented by any person whom he may have authorised to represent him.

(3) Preliminary meetings shall be conducted on behalf of the Authority only by a member or employee of the Authority.

Hearing in connection with licences.

14.-(1) Before any decision to grant, refuse to grant, revoke, suspend or vary an air transport licence is made, the following persons shall have a right to be heard –

- (f) the holder of a road service licence granted under Part III of the Road Traffic Act 1960, authorising services of express carriages;
- (g) the holder of a road service licence granted under Part II of the Transport Act (Northern Ireland) 1967:

Provided that:

- (ii) no person shall be heard before a decision is made by the Authority in a case where the Secretary of State has directed that the licence be granted, refused, revoked, suspended or varied.

(2) Any person who has a right to be heard in connection with any case pursuant to paragraph (1) of this regulation shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be deemed to be a party to that case.

(3) Notwithstanding that a person does not have a right to be heard, the Authority may, if it thinks fit, hear him:

Provided that no person shall be heard pursuant to this paragraph –

- (i) unless he has entered an objection or made a representation pursuant to regulation 10 of these Regulations and in so doing has stated that he wishes to be heard;

A similar notice shall be published not less than 7 days before the date of the hearing and shall be exhibited in a public place for a like period:

Provided that in cases considered by the Authority to be of compelling urgency a hearing may be held without such notice having been served and published as aforesaid if the Authority has given notice of the date, time and place of the hearing, being notice of such length and by such means (whether oral or written) as it thinks fit, to the applicant and any person of a description specified in paragraph (1) of this regulation whose interests are in the opinion of the Authority likely to be prejudiced by the granting of the application.

(6) Two or more cases may be heard together, if the Authority thinks fit, but a party to one case shall not on that account be deemed to be a party to any other case.

(7) At a hearing every party to a case, and if the Authority thinks fit any person heard by the Authority pursuant to paragraph (3) of this regulation, may appear in person or be represented by any other person whom he may have authorised to represent him, and may produce oral and written evidence and may examine any other party to that case, any person whom the Authority hears pursuant to paragraph (3) of this regulation and any witnesses produced by any such party or person.

(8) Every hearing shall be held in public unless the Authority shall otherwise decide in relation to the whole or part of a particular case.

(9) The failure of the Authority or of any person to give any notice or publish any particulars in the time or manner provided for in the Act or in these Regulations or any other procedural irregularity shall not invalidate the action taken by the Authority; and the Authority may, and shall if it considers that any person may have been prejudiced, take such steps as it thinks fit before reaching its decision to cure the irregularity, whether by the giving of notice or otherwise.

(10) All the proceedings at a hearing of the Authority in connection with a licence or proposal shall be recorded by a shorthand writer, or, if the Authority thinks fit, by some other means, and if any person requests a record of the proceedings the Authority shall cause a mechanical recording or transcript of the shorthand or other record to be made available for purchase by that person at a reasonable price:

- (b) a mechanical recording or transcript of the record of proceedings conducted otherwise than in public shall only be required to be made available for purchase by any party to the case or by any other person heard by the Authority at those proceedings.

(11) If within 48 hours of being notified by the Authority of its decision of the case a party to the case requests a record of the proceedings in connection with that case, he shall within 24 hours after he has made his request to the Authority notify each of the persons referred to in regulation 16(3)(a), (c), (d) and (e) that he has done so and the Authority shall notify each of the said persons of the date on which the mechanical recording or transcript, as the case may be, is supplied to the person requesting it.

Stay of proceedings.

15.-(1) If the Secretary of State gives a direction to the Authority pursuant to section 24(2) of the Act or if the Authority makes a request to the Secretary of State pursuant to that subsection the Authority shall send a copy of the direction or request and of the cancellation of the direction or determination of the request to all parties to all cases before the Authority to which the direction, request, cancellation or determination relates, and shall publish any such direction, request, cancellation or determination. The Authority shall also send to all such parties a copy of any guidance or different guidance given by the Secretary of State following any such direction or request.

(2) If guidance or different guidance is so given and before the direction was given or the request made a hearing had already been held in connection with the case, a further hearing shall be held if any of the parties to that case so requests within 28 days of receiving a copy of the guidance or different guidance.

(4) The notice of appeal shall be served within 21 days from the day on which the Authority notifies the appellant of its decision, or from the day (if that day is later) on which the appellant receives a mechanical recording or transcript of the record of the proceedings in pursuance of a request made by him under regulation 14(11), being a request made within 48 hours of his being notified of the Authority's decision of the case and of which he has, within 24 hours after making his request, served notice in writing on the persons referred to in paragraph (3)(a), (c), (d) and (e) of this regulation.

(5) Any person having the right to appeal against a decision of the Authority may require it to furnish him with the names and addresses of the persons or bodies of the description specified in paragraph (3)(c), (d) or (e) of this regulation.

(6) Any party to the appeal and any person or body who has been served with notice of the appeal pursuant to paragraph (3)(e) of this regulation may within 14 days of service thereof serve on the Secretary of State a written submission giving reasons why the Authority's decision should or should not be upheld and shall within such period serve copies of any such submission on the Authority and the appellant: but neither the appellant nor any other party may submit to the Secretary of State any evidence which was not before the Authority when it decided the case.

(7) Within 28 days of receiving notice of an appeal, the Authority shall furnish the Secretary of State with any written submission it may wish to make in connection with the appeal including, if it thinks fit, an amplification and explanation of the reasons for its decision, and shall, within such period, serve copies of any such submission on the appellant.

(8) Within 14 days of the expiry of the period of 28 days referred to in the preceding paragraph of this regulation, the appellant may serve on the Secretary of State a reply to any submission made pursuant to paragraphs (6) and (7) of this regulation.

(9) Before deciding an appeal the Secretary of State may ask any person who has made a submission pursuant to the preceding paragraph of this regulation to amplify or explain any point in his submission and shall give the appellant an opportunity of replying to any such amplification or explanation.

(10) The Secretary of State may if he thinks fit uphold the decision of the Authority or direct it to re-hear the case which is the subject of the appeal or to reverse or vary its decision.

(11) The Secretary of State shall notify the Authority, the appellant and the persons or bodies who have been served with the notice of appeal pursuant to paragraph (3) of this regulation of his decision and of the reasons for it and the Authority shall publish the Secretary of State's notification.

(12) (a) Subject to paragraph 13 of this regulation, in determining an appeal the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, order the appellant to pay to any other party thereto either a specified sum in respect of the costs incurred by him in connection with the appeal, or the taxed amount of those costs or any part thereof.

(14) An appeal to the Secretary of State shall not preclude him from consulting the competent authorities of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom for the purposes of section 4(3)(a) to (d) of the Act (which relates to national security, relations with other countries and territories and similar matters) notwithstanding that the consultation may relate to matters affecting the appeal.

Transfer of licences.

17.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation –

(a) if the sole holder of an air transport licence (being an individual) shall die, the licence shall be treated from the time of his death as if it had then been granted to his legal personal representative;

- (b) if in connection with the reconstruction of any body corporate or the amalgamation of any bodies corporate the whole of the business of the holder of a licence (being a body corporate) or such part thereof as includes the provision of carriage by air for reward of passengers or cargo, is transferred or sold to another body corporate, the licence shall be treated, from the date of the transfer or sale of the whole or the relevant part of the business, as if it had been granted to that other body corporate.

(2) The person required by paragraph (1) of this regulation to be treated as the holder of the licence may apply to the Authority –

(3) The application shall state the ground on which it is based and shall be served on the Authority within the period of 20 days from the day on which the applicant first became entitled to make it; and if no application as aforesaid is made within that period the licence shall cease at the expiration of that period to be treated as if granted to a person other than the person to whom it was granted.

(4) The application shall, for the purposes of these Regulations be treated as if it were an application for the variation of the licence, and the provisions of regulation 16 as to appeals shall apply accordingly.

(5) The Authority shall not grant an application for the transfer of a licence to, or the substitution of the name of, any person if it would be bound under section 22(2) or (3) of the Act to refuse that application if it were an application for the grant of a licence to that person.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation "legal personal representative" means a person constituted executor, administrator or other representative of a deceased person by probate, administration or other instrument.

Surrender of licences.

18. If revocation or variation of an air transport licence has taken effect, the Authority may require any person who has the licence in his possession or control to surrender it for cancellation or variation, as the case may be and any person who fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with any such requirement, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.
