PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

Loi par rapport à la Publication des Annonces Officielles (1936)

VU LES représentations faites à la Cour Royale par la Société propriétaire du journal officiel hebdomadaire dit "La Gazette de Guernesey" qu'il ne sera plus possible à l'avenir de publier tel journal:

VU AUSSI qu'il est désirable d'accorder aux annonces officielles la plus grande publicité possible:

LES ÉTATS ont approuvé les règlements suivant rédigés en anglais afin que moyennant la Sanction Sa Très Excellence Majesté en Conseil tels règlements aient force de Loi en cette Île.

Publication of Notices.

1. This Law shall come into operation on such date as the Royal Court shall appoint (hereinafter called "the appointed date") and thenceforth every notice hitherto required by Law, Ordinance or Custom to be published in "La Gazette de Guernesey", or to be published therein and in one or more of the local daily newspapers, or to be published in "La Gazette de Guernesey" and in the "Cadre" of one or more of the Parish Churches or to be published in one or more of the foregoing manners and also in the "Cadre" in the Vestibule of the Royal Court or to be published only in the "Cadre" of one or more of the Parish Churches, shall be published in each of two daily newspapers published in the English language in this Island or, if at any time hereafter only one such newspaper shall be so published therein, then in that newspaper, and the publication in those newspapers or that newspaper, as the case may be, of any such notice in the manner and on the day and on the number of occasions specified in that behalf by Ordinance of the Royal Court together with the publication in manner required by Law, Ordinance or Custom in the "Cadre" in the Vestibule of the Royal Court (in the case only of notices so required to be published therein) shall be deemed for all purposes to be sufficient publication of that notice, any Law, Ordinance or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided that as regards notices convening Parish Meetings in any parish such notices in addition to being published as hereinbefore provided shall, if a meeting of the "Chefs de Famille" of that parish shall so decide, be published in the "Cadre" of the Church of that parish and as regards that parish such additional method of publication of such notices shall be compulsory until such time as a decision of a meeting of the "Chefs de Famille" of that parish to the contrary shall become operative.

NOTES

The Law was brought into force on 30th March, 1936 by the Ordonnance par rapport à la Publication des Annonces Officielles, 1936, section 1.

The following Ordinances have been made under this Law:

Ordonnance par rapport à la Publication des Annonces Officielles, 1936;
Official Publications Ordinance, 1948.

Language of Notices.

2. On and after the appointed date, the publication of the notices referred to in the foregoing section may be made in French or in English or partly in the one language and partly in the other at the discretion of authority or person charged with the duty of publishing the same.

Ordinances.

3. The Royal Court is hereby authorised to make Regulations by Ordinance with regard to the publication after the appointed date of notices required by Law, Ordinance or Custom to be published.

NOTES

The following Ordinance has been made under section 3:

Official Publications (Amendment) Ordinance, 1973.

In accordance with the provisions of the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, Article 63, with effect from 17th January, 1949, the powers and functions of a legislative nature previously exercised by the Royal Court (save for the making, variation, modification and revocation of Rules of Procedure) were transferred to and vested in the States of Deliberation, and thenceforth any enactment conferring power on the Royal Court to exercise any such powers and functions by way of Ordinance shall be construed as having conferred the like power on the States of Deliberation or on the States Legislation Select Committee, as the case may be.
