PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Parochial Church Property (Guernsey) Law, 2015

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 24th February, 2012^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Island of Guernsey.

PART I

PAROCHIAL CHURCH PROPERTY

Ancient parish churches and churchyards

Ownership of ancient parish churches and churchyards.

1. For the avoidance of doubt, this Law does not affect the ownership of

(a) the parish churches, and

(b) the churchyards of the parish churches, of the ancient parishes.

Glebe land

Ownership of glebe land.

^a Article XV of Billet d'État No. IV of 2012.

2. (1) Legal ownership of glebe land belonging to an ancient parish, wherever situated, is transferred to and shall vest in the Constables for the time being of that parish.

(2) In addition to the provisions of section 3, the Constables of a parish may not –

(a) sell, or

(b) change the use of,

glebe land except after consultation with, and taking into consideration the views of, the Rector and Churchwardens.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), only a change of use which would lead to a change in the property reference of glebe land for the purposes of the Taxation of Real Property (Guernsey and Alderney) Ordinance, 2007^b is a change of the use of glebe land.

(4) Subject to any lease approved in accordance with section 3(2)(a)(ii), the Constables shall permit the Rector and Churchwardens to have reasonable use of the glebe land.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, and without prejudice to section 4, any thing or sum of money which in accordance with the customary law of Guernsey represents the fructus of the glebe land will continue to be due or payable to the Rector.

^b Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XXXII, p. 504; Order in Council No. XIII of 2010; Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XXXIII, pp. 45, 332 and 674; Ordinance No. LIII of 2010; No. XLVIII of 2011 and No. XIII of 2012; G.S.I. No. 54 of 2008; No. 109 of 2010 and No. 40 of 2011.

Transfer of property and vesting in Constables.

3. (1) Where any property has been transferred to and vested in the Constables under section 2 (a "relevant property"), that property shall be held by the Constables on trust for purposes beneficial to the relevant persons of the parish.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the Constables –

(a) in addition to any duty to consult the Rector and Churchwardens under section 2, may not –

(i) sell,

(ii) lease, or

(iii) change the use of, the relevant property except with the approval of a ratepayers meeting called for that purpose, and

(b) in the exercise of any function under this Law, must act in accordance with any direction given to them by a ratepayers meeting, unless that direction would be contrary to any provision of this Law.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a)(iii), only a change of use which would lead to a change in the property reference of the relevant property for the purposes of the Taxation of Real Property (Guernsey and Alderney) Ordinance, 2007^c is a change of the use of the relevant property.

^c Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XXXII, p. 504; Order in Council No. XIII of

Continuation of certain rentes etc. and personal liabilities.

4. (1) For the avoidance of doubt, the following provisions shall apply in respect of a relevant property –

- (a) all rentes, encumbrances and servitudes subsisting and enforceable at the date of commencement of this Law in respect of a relevant property shall continue to subsist and be enforceable, and
- (b) all rights, obligations and liabilities subsisting on the date of commencement of this Law and enforceable against the persons in whom, immediately before that date, the property was vested shall, on that date, be transferred to and enforceable against the Constables of the parish and shall thereby be extinguished as against those persons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), "all rights" includes, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, the rights of a beneficiary under a trust.

PART II
MANAGEMENT BOARDS

Management Boards.

5. (1) There shall be established a Management Board for each

2010; Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XXXIII, pp. 45, 332 and 674; Ordinance No. LIII of 2010; No. XLVIII of 2011 and No. XIII of 2012; G.S.I. No. 54 of 2008; No. 109 of 2010 and No. 40 of 2011.

ancient parish which, subject to any decision of the ratepayers meeting, has the functions listed in subsection (2) in relation to the management of the parochial church property of that parish.

- (2) The Management Board will have the functions of –
 - (a) making recommendations to ratepayers meetings in relation to –
 - (i) any works to the parochial church property, and
 - (ii) any sum that should be raised by means of the Owners' Rate for the maintenance and upkeep of parochial church property,
 - (b) overseeing any works approved by the ratepayers meeting,
 - (c) reporting to the ratepayers meeting in relation to any works approved by the ratepayers meeting,
 - (d) reporting to the ratepayers meeting on an annual basis in relation to the insurance of the parochial church property, and
 - (e) subject to subsection (3), recommending additional uses of the parish church to the Rector and Churchwardens.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, an additional use of the parish church –

- (a) must not be incompatible with any relevant Canon of the Church of England, and
- (b) may only be carried out with the permission of the Rector and Churchwardens.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the "parochial church property" of an ancient parish is –

- (a) the parish church,
- (b) the churchyard, and
- (c) the glebe land,

of that parish.

Composition and procedure of Management Boards.

6. (1) The Management Board of an ancient parish shall be composed of the following seven members –

- (a) the Rector,
- (b) the two Churchwardens,
- (c) two representatives of the parish, elected annually by the Douzeniers and Constables from amongst their number, and
- (d) two ratepayers elected annually at a ratepayers meeting.

(2) The members of the Management Board shall elect a Chairman from amongst their number, who shall have an original vote.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a person may not be a member of a Management Board in more than one capacity listed in subsection (1).

(4) The quorum of a Management Board shall be three, consisting of one member of each category described in subsection (1)(b), (c) and (d).

(5) A Management Board shall determine its own procedure.

Powers of Management Boards.

7. A Management Board may do anything which appears to it to be conducive to the carrying out of the functions specified in section 5(2) or to be incidental to their proper discharge, and, without prejudice to the generality, it may –

- (a) instruct experts, and
- (b) receive reports.

PART III
RECTORIES

Exemptions.

8. (1) Sections 9 and 10 do not apply to the ancient parishes of St Peter Port and the Vale.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (1) does not affect any liability of the two parishes mentioned in that subsection to maintain the rectory as before.

Ownership of rectories.

9. Legal ownership of the rectory of each of the ancient parishes is –
- (a) transferred to and shall vest in the Constables for the time being of that parish, and
 - (b) held by them on trust for purposes beneficial to the relevant persons of the parish.

Sale of rectories.

10. (1) A rectory shall not be sold by the Constables of a parish except –
- (a) where there is a vacancy in the living, after consultation with, and taking into consideration the views of, the Deanery Synod, or
 - (b) where a Rector currently lives in the rectory –
 - (i) with the agreement of the Rector, and
 - (ii) after consultation with, and taking into consideration the views of, the Deanery Synod.
- (2) Where it is proposed that a rectory is to be sold by the Constables of a parish, it must be approved at a ratepayers meeting called for that purpose.
- (3) Subject to any customary law duty to provide suitable accommodation for –

- (a) the Rector of an ancient parish, and
- (b) the Rector's household,

the proceeds of the sale of a rectory may be applied in any lawful way for purposes beneficial to the relevant persons of the parish.

PART IV MISCELLANEOUS

Powers of trustees.

11. Where the Constables of a parish hold any property on trust pursuant to this Law, they may, subject to any provision of this Law, apply any part of the capital or income of that property for the purposes of the trust.
