ENTITLED

The Trustees of the Guille Allès Library (Additional Powers) (Guernsey) Law, 1958.

WHEREAS by a Deed of Gift registered on the Records of this Island on the tenth day of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, Thomas Guille and Frédéric Mansell Allès conveyed certain premises situate at Market Street in the Parish of Saint Peter Port to Trustees, in trust, for the use of the Guille Allès Library and Museum:

AND WHEREAS one of the conditions of the said Deed was that the said premises should not be sold until the Council of the said Library had decided on another site for the said Library and Museum in the Parish of Saint Peter Port and that the money realised by the said sale should be used for the purchase of new premises for the said Library and Museum, the balance to be held in trust and the income therefrom to be applied for the purposes of the said Library and Museum:

AND WHEREAS by a further Deed of Gift registered on the said Records on the tenth day of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, the said Thomas Guille and Frédéric Mansell Allès conveyed to the said Trustees, subject to the same conditions as aforesaid, certain additional premises, now known

AND WHEREAS the said Institute continued to be so used until nineteen hundred and forty but has not since been used for any purpose connected with the said Library and Museum:

AND WHEREAS the Trustees for the time being are satisfied that there has not been since nineteen hundred and forty and there is not now any demand or need for an artisans' institute:

AND WHEREAS the Trustees for the time being are satisfied that it is in the interests of the trust and are desirous that the said premises known as the Guille Allès Artisans' Institute should be sold and that the net proceeds of sale should be held in trust for the use of the Guille Allès Library and Museum and a Petition to that effect was laid before the States of Deliberation on the twenty-sixth day of February, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, praying that legislation be prepared authorising the Trustees to sell the said premises:

NOW THEREFORE the States, in pursuance of their Resolution of the twenty-sixth day of February, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in this Island.
