 - (b) any property held by a person to whom the defendant has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by Part 2; and
 - (c) any property to which the defendant is beneficially entitled.
- (2) However, property is not realisable property if an order under Article 29 of the Misuse of Drugs \(Jersey\) Law 1978, Article 27 of the Terrorism \(Jersey\) Law 2002 or Article 9 of the Proceeds of Crime (Cash Seizure) (Jersey) Law 2008 is in force in respect of the property.⁸
- (3) For the purposes of Part 2, the amount that might be realised at the time a confiscation order is made is the total of the values at that time of all the realisable property, including –
 - (a) the total value of any property to which the defendant is beneficially entitled, less –
 - (i) any amount due in respect of a fine or other order of the Court or the Court of Appeal or the Magistrate’s Court or the Youth Court, imposed or made on conviction for an offence, where the fine was imposed or the order was made before the making of the confiscation order, making of the confiscation order, being a continuing security interest to which, as referred to in Article 1A of the Security Interests \(Jersey\) Law 1983, that Law applies or a security interest within the meaning of the Security Interests \(Jersey\) Law 2012; and

- (b) the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by Part 2.⁹
- (4) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, for the purposes of Part 2 the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property means the market value of the property.
- (5) References in Part 2 to the value at any time (referred to in paragraph (6) as the “material time”) of any property obtained by a person as a result of or in connection with an offence are references to –
 - (a) the value of the property to the person when the person obtained it, adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or
 - (b) where paragraph (6) applies, the value there mentioned, whichever is greater.
- (6) If at the material time the person holds –
 - (a) the property that the person obtained (not being cash); or
 - (b) property that, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in the person’s hands the property that the person obtained,the value referred to in paragraph (5)(b) is the value to the person at the material time of the property mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph or (as the case may be) the property mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph so far as it so represents the property that the person obtained.
- (7) Subject to paragraph (10), references in Part 2 to the value at any time (referred to in paragraph (8) as the “material time”) of a gift caught by Part 2 are references to –
 - (a) the value of the gift to the recipient when he or she received it, adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or
 - (b) where paragraph (8) applies, the value there mentioned, whichever is greater.
- (8) Subject to paragraph (10), if at the material time the person holds –
 - (a) the property that he or she received (not being cash); or
 - (b) property that, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in his or her hands the property that he or she received,the value referred to in paragraph (7)(b) is the value to him or her at the material time of the property mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph or (as the case may be) sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph so far as it so represents the property that he or she received.

- (9) A gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Article) is caught by Part 2 if –
 - (a) it was made by the defendant at any time after the commission of the relevant offence or, if more than one, the earliest of the relevant offences; and
 - (b) the Court considers it appropriate in all the circumstances to take the gift into account.¹⁰
- (9A) A gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Article) made by the defendant into a trust is caught by Part 2 if –
 - (a) it was made within the period of 5 years preceding the commission of the relevant offence or, if more than one, the earliest of the relevant offences;
 - (b) the Court considers it appropriate in all the circumstances to take the gift into a trust into account; and
 - (c) at any point after the reference date any of the following apply –
 - (i) the defendant is a beneficiary (including a discretionary beneficiary) of the trust,
 - (ii) the trustees of the trust have the power to add the defendant as a beneficiary of the trust, or
 - (iii) written documents of any kind exist which anticipate the defendant benefitting from the trust property at some future time.¹¹
- (9B) In paragraphs (9) and (9A), “relevant offence” means an offence to which the proceedings for the time being relate, and includes, where the proceedings have resulted in the conviction of the defendant, a reference to any offence that the Court takes into consideration when determining the defendant’s sentence.¹²
- (9C) In paragraph (9A) “reference date” means the date that is 5 years before the date of commission of the relevant offence, or, if more than one, the earliest of the relevant offences.¹³
- (10) For the purposes of Part 2 –
 - (a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift include those where the defendant transfers property to another person or into a trust directly or indirectly for a value that is significantly less than the value provided by the defendant; and
 - (b) in those circumstances, the preceding provisions of this Article shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in sub-paragraph (a) bears to the value provided by the defendant.¹⁴
- (11) The States may amend this Article (except this paragraph) by Regulations.¹⁵

PART 2

CONFISCATION ORDERS

3 Confiscation orders

- (1) Where a defendant appears before the Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more offences specified in Schedule 1, and the defendant has not previously been sentenced or otherwise dealt with in respect of his or her conviction for the offence or (as the case may be) any of the offences concerned –
 - (a) if the Attorney General asks the Court to proceed under this Article; or
 - (b) if the Court considers that, even though the Attorney General has not asked it to do so, it is appropriate for it to proceed under this Article,the Court may act in accordance with this Article.
- (2) However, this Article shall not apply in the case of any proceedings against any defendant where the defendant is convicted in those proceedings of an offence that was committed before this Article comes into force.
- (3) Where the Court is proceeding under this Article, it may first determine whether the defendant has benefited from any relevant criminal conduct.
- (4) If the Court determines that the defendant has so benefited it may, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with the defendant in respect of the offence or (as the case may be) any of the offences concerned –
 - (a) determine in accordance with Article 4 the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case by virtue of this Article; and
 - (b) make a confiscation order, to the effect that the defendant pay that amount.
- (5) Where the Court makes a confiscation order –
 - (a) it shall take account of the order before –
 - (i) imposing any fine on the defendant,
 - (ii) making any order involving any payment by the defendant, or
 - (iii) making any forfeiture order under Article 29 of the Misuse of Drugs \(Jersey\) Law 1978, Article 27 of the Terrorism \(Jersey\) Law 2002 or Article 9 of the Proceeds of Crime (Cash Seizure) (Jersey) Law 2008; and
 - (b) subject to sub-paragraph (a), it shall leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with the defendant in the proceedings.¹⁶
- (6) No enactment restricting the power of a court dealing with an offender in a particular way from dealing with the offender also in any other way shall by reason only of the making of an order under this Article restrict the Court from dealing with an offender in any way that the Court considers appropriate in respect of an offence specified in Schedule 1.

- (7) Where –
- (a) the Court makes both a confiscation order and an order for the payment of compensation under Article 2 of the Criminal Justice \(Compensation Orders\) \(Jersey\) Law 1994 against the same person in the same proceedings; and
 - (b) it appears to the Court that the person will not have sufficient means to satisfy both the orders in full,
- it shall direct that so much of the compensation as will not in its opinion be recoverable because of the insufficiency of the person's means shall be paid out of any sums recovered under the confiscation order.
- (8) The standard of proof required to determine any question arising under this Law as to –
- (a) whether a person has benefited from any offence; or
 - (b) the amount to be recovered in the person's case by virtue of this Article,
- shall be that applicable in civil proceedings.
- (9) The States may amend Schedule 1 by Regulations, by adding, deleting or substituting any offence.¹⁷

4 Amount to be recovered under confiscation order¹⁸

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the amount which a defendant is required by a confiscation order to pay (in this Article, “the penalty”) shall be the amount assessed by the Court to be the value of the defendant's benefit from the relevant criminal conduct (in paragraph (2), the “assessed value”).
- (2) Where the Court is satisfied that the amount which might be realised at the time when the confiscation order is made is less than the assessed value, the penalty shall be the amount which appears to the Court might be so realised (or, if that amount is nil, a nominal amount).
- (3) Where the Court is satisfied that a victim of the relevant criminal conduct has instituted or intends to institute civil proceedings against the defendant in respect of loss, injury or damage sustained in connection with that conduct, the penalty may be of such lesser amount as the Court thinks fit.

5 Confiscation order relating to a course of relevant criminal conduct

- (1) This Article applies for the purposes of Article 3 where a defendant appears before the Court to be sentenced in respect of a qualifying offence –
 - (a) if the Attorney General asks the Court to apply it for the purposes of that Article; or
 - (b) if the Court considers that, even though the Attorney General has not asked it to do so, it is appropriate for it to do so.¹⁹

- (2) An offence is a qualifying offence for the purposes of this Part if it is an offence in respect of which all of the following conditions are satisfied, namely –
- (a) it is an offence specified in Schedule 1;
 - (b) it is an offence committed after this Article comes into force; and
 - (c) the Court is satisfied that it is an offence from which the defendant has benefited.
- (3) The relevant period for the purposes of this Article, in relation to a defendant, is the period of 6 years ending when the proceedings in which this Article applies were instituted against the defendant.
- (4) When this Article applies for the purposes of Article 3, the Court may if it thinks fit (but subject to paragraph (6)) make the assumptions in paragraph (5) for the purpose –
- (a) of determining whether the defendant has benefited from relevant criminal conduct; and
 - (b) if the defendant has, of assessing the value of the defendant's benefit from such conduct.
- (5) Those assumptions are –
- (a) that any property appearing to the Court to be held by the defendant at any time since the date of the defendant's conviction, or appearing to the Court to have been transferred to the defendant at any time since the beginning of the relevant period –
 - (i) was received by the defendant at the earliest time when he or she appears to the Court to have held it, and
 - (ii) was received by the defendant as a result of or in connection with the commission of offences specified in Schedule 1;
 - (b) that any of the defendant's expenditure since the beginning of the relevant period was met out of payments received by the defendant as a result of or in connection with the commission of offences specified in Schedule 1; and
 - (c) for the purposes of valuing any property that the defendant had or is assumed to have had at any time, that the defendant received the property free of any other interests in it.
- (6) The Court shall not make an assumption in paragraph (5) in respect of any particular property or expenditure –
- (a) if the assumption, so far as it relates to that property or expenditure, is shown to be incorrect;
 - (b) if the assumption, so far as it relates to that property or expenditure, is shown to be correct in respect of an offence from which the defendant's benefit has been the subject of a previous confiscation order; or
 - (c) if the Court is satisfied that, for any other reason, there would be a serious risk of injustice if the assumption were made in respect of that property or expenditure.

- (7) Where the assumptions in paragraph (5) are made the offences from which, in accordance with those assumptions, the defendant is found to have benefited shall be treated as if they were comprised, for the purposes of this Part, in the conduct that is to be treated as relevant criminal conduct by the defendant.
- (8) In this Article, the “date of the defendant’s conviction” means –
 - (a) in a case not falling within sub-paragraph (b), the date on which the defendant is convicted of the offence in question; and
 - (b) where the defendant is convicted of that offence and one or more other offences in the proceedings in question, and those convictions are not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions.

6 Postponed determinations

- (1) Where the Court is acting under Article 3 but considers that it requires further information before –
 - (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from any relevant criminal conduct; or
 - (b) determining the amount to be recovered in the defendant’s case by virtue of Article 3, it may, for the purposes of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone the making of the determination for such period as it may specify.

- (2) More than one postponement may be made under paragraph (1) in relation to the same case.
- (3) Unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the Court shall not specify a period that –
 - (a) by itself; or
 - (b) where there have been one or more previous postponements under paragraph (1) or (4), when taken together with the earlier specified period or periods, exceeds 6 months beginning with the date of conviction.

- (4) Where the defendant appeals against his or her conviction, the Court may on that account –
 - (a) postpone the making of either or both of the determinations mentioned in paragraph (1) for such period as it may specify; or
 - (b) where it has already exercised its powers under this Article to postpone, extend the specified period.
- (5) A postponement or extension under paragraph (1) or (4) may be made –
 - (a) on application by the defendant or the Attorney General; or
 - (b) by the Court of its own motion.
- (6) Unless the Court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under paragraph (4) shall not exceed the period ending 3 months after the date on which the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

- (7) Where the Court exercises its power under paragraph (1) or (4), it may nevertheless proceed to sentence or otherwise deal with the defendant in respect of the offence or any of the offences concerned.
- (8) Where the Court has so proceeded, it may determine in accordance with Article 4 the amount to be recovered in the case of the defendant by virtue of Article 3 and make a confiscation order under Article 3, notwithstanding that the defendant has been sentenced or otherwise dealt with already.
- (9) In sentencing or otherwise dealing with the defendant in respect of the offence concerned, or any of the offences concerned, at any time during the specified period, the Court shall not –
 - (a) impose any fine on the defendant; or
 - (b) make any order mentioned in Article 3(5)(a).
- (10) Where the Court has sentenced the defendant under paragraph (7) of this Article during the specified period it may, after the end of that period, vary the sentence by imposing a fine or making any order mentioned in Article 3(5)(a), so long as it does so within 28 days after the specified period.
- (11) In this Article the “date of conviction” means –
 - (a) in a case not falling within sub-paragraph (b), the date on which the defendant was convicted; or
 - (b) where the defendant was convicted, in the same proceedings but on different dates, of 2 or more offences that are comprised in relevant criminal conduct, the date of the latest of those convictions.

7 Statements relating to criminal offences

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), the Attorney General –
 - (a) may at any time give to the Court a statement of matters that the Attorney General considers relevant for the purpose –
 - (i) of determining whether the defendant has benefited from any relevant criminal conduct, or
 - (ii) of assessing the value of the defendant’s benefit from that conduct; and
 - (b) shall give to the Court such a statement, setting out all information available to the Attorney General that is relevant for the purposes of Article 5(5) and (6), if the case is one in which the Attorney General has asked the Court to apply that Article for the purposes of Article 3.
- (2) In this Article, such a statement is referred to as an “Attorney General’s statement”.

- (3) If, having considered the evidence, the Court is satisfied that the real value of the defendant’s benefit from relevant criminal conduct is greater than its assessed value (whether because the real value was higher at the time of the current determination than was thought or because the value of the benefit in question has subsequently increased), the Court shall make a fresh determination under Article 3(4) of the amount to be recovered by virtue of that Article.
