UNLAWFUL PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENTS (JERSEY) REGULATIONS 2019

THE STATES make these Regulations under the Order in Council dated 14th April 1884 –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Organising an unlawful public entertainment an offence

- (1) A person who organises or is otherwise concerned in providing an unlawful public entertainment commits an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term of 6 months and to a fine.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a public entertainment is unlawful if it is held without the permission of the Bailiff.
- (3) The Bailiff may grant permission for the provision of a public entertainment subject to such conditions as the Bailiff thinks fit.
- (4) The Bailiff may, in respect of permission granted under paragraph (3), if it appears to the Bailiff to be in the public interest to do so –
 - (a) revoke the permission;
 - (b) if the permission is not subject to any condition, attach such conditions to that permission as the Bailiff thinks fit;
 - (c) if the permission is subject to a condition, revoke that condition or vary it as the Bailiff thinks fit.¹
- (5) Paragraph (4) and this paragraph expire at the end of 30th April 2022.²

2 Contravention of condition of permission an offence

An organiser of, or a person otherwise concerned in providing, a public entertainment commits an offence and is liable for a term of 6 months and to a fine if –

- (a) any condition of the Bailiff's permission for the entertainment is contravened; and
- (b) the organiser of, or person otherwise concerned in providing, the entertainment did not take all reasonable precautions to avoid the contravention.

3 Offences by body corporate, etc.

- (1) In this Regulation –
- “relevant body” means a limited liability partnership, a separate limited partnership, a limited liability company, an incorporated limited partnership or another body corporate;
- “relevant offence” means an offence that is committed by a relevant body;
- “relevant person” means –
- (a) if the relevant offence is committed by a limited liability partnership, a partner of the partnership;
 - (b) if the relevant offence is committed by a separate limited partnership or an incorporated limited partnership –
 - (i) a general partner, or
 - (ii) a limited partner who is participating in the management of the partnership;
 - (c) if the relevant offence is committed by a limited liability company or a body corporate (other than an incorporated limited partnership) –
 - (i) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
 - (ii) if the affairs of the body corporate are managed by its members, a member who is acting in connection with the member’s functions of management; and
 - (d) a person purporting to act in any capacity described in sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) in relation to the relevant body that commits the relevant offence.
- (2) If a relevant offence under Regulation 1 or 2 is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a relevant person, that relevant person is also guilty of the offence and liable in the same manner as the relevant body to the penalty provided for that offence.
- (3) If a relevant offence under Regulation 2 is proved to be attributable to any neglect on the part of a relevant person, that relevant person is also guilty of the offence and liable in the same manner as the relevant body to the penalty provided for the offence.

4 Saving of customary law

Nothing in these Regulations is to be taken as abolishing, modifying or prejudicing any offence against the customary law.

5 Citation, commencement and duration

- (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Unlawful Public Entertainments (Jersey) Regulations 2019.
- (2) These Regulations come into force on 21st July 2019 and remain in force for 3 years from that date.
