ORDER IN COUNCIL

IN THE ROYAL COURT OF THE ISLAND OF GUERNSEY

6th day of July, 2009 before Richard John Collas, Esquire, Deputy Bailiff; present:- Derek Martin Le Page, Stephen Edward Francis Le Poidevin, Alan Cecil Bisson, Michael Henry De La Mare, Esquires, The Reverend Peter Gerald Lane, Michael John Tanguy, Esquire, Susan Mowbray, Barbara Jean Bartie, David Osmond Le Conte, Stephen Murray Jones, Esquires, Claire Helen Le Pelley, Peter Sean Trueman Girard, Esquire and Constance Helyar-Wilkinson, Jurats.

The Deputy Bailiff having this day placed before the Court an Order of Her Majesty in Council dated 10th June 2009 approving and ratifying a Projet de Loi entitled “The Competition (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2009”, THE COURT, after the reading of the said Order in Council and after having heard Her Majesty’s Comptroller thereon, ORDERED that the said Order in Council be registered on the records of this Island.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace

THE 10th DAY OF JUNE 2009

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The following report from the Committee of Council for the Affairs of Jersey and Guernsey was today read at the Board:

"In accordance with Your Majesty's General Order of Reference of 22nd February 1952 the Committee have considered a Petition of the States of Guernsey:

"That, in pursuance of their Resolutions of 27th July 2006, 12th March 2008 and 25th February 2009, the States of Deliberation at a meeting on 25th February 2009 approved a Projet de Loi entitled the Competition (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2009 and requested the Bailiff to present a most humble Petition to Your Majesty in Council praying for Your Royal Sanction to it. That the Projet de Loi is as set forth in the attached Schedule. The Petition most humbly prays that Your Majesty might be graciously pleased to sanction the Competition (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2009, and to order that it shall have force of law in the Islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou.

"The Committee have considered the Projet de Loi and have agreed to report that it may be advisable for Your Majesty to approve and ratify it".

Her Majesty, having taken the report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve and ratify the Projet de Loi (a copy of which is annexed to this Order) and to order that it, together with this Order, shall have the force of law in the Islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou and shall be entered on the Register of the Island of Guernsey and observed accordingly.

Her Majesty's Officers in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and all others whom it may concern, are therefore to take notice of Her Majesty's Order and to proceed accordingly.

Judith Simpson

ENTITLED

The Competition (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2009

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolutions of the 27th July, 2006^a, the 12th March, 2008^b and the 25th February, 2009^c, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou.

Power to enact Ordinances in relation to competition.

1. The States may by Ordinance make such provision as they think fit in relation to -

- (a) the abuse of a dominant position by undertakings,
- (b) anti-competitive practices of undertakings, and
- (c) the merger and acquisition of undertakings.

Meaning of abuse of a dominant position.

2. In this Law an "abuse of a dominant position" means an abuse by one or more undertakings of a dominant position within any market in Guernsey for goods or services and, without limitation, includes -

^a Article XVIII of Billet d'État No. XIII of 2006.

^b Article IX of Billet d'État No. III of 2008.

^c Article I of Billet d'État No. VII of 2009.

- (a) directly or indirectly imposing unfair purchase or selling prices or other unfair trading conditions,
- (b) limiting production, markets or technical development to the prejudice of consumers or any class or description thereof,
- (c) applying dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions with other trading parties, thereby placing them at a competitive disadvantage,
- (d) making the conclusion of contracts subject to the acceptance by the other parties of supplementary obligations which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of the contracts.

Meaning of anti-competitive practice.

3. In this Law an "anti-competitive practice" means any agreement between undertakings which has the object or effect of preventing competition within any market in Guernsey for goods or services and, without limitation, includes -

- (a) directly or indirectly fixing purchase or selling prices or any other trading conditions,
- (b) limiting or controlling production, markets, technical development or investment,

- (c) sharing markets or sources of supply,
- (d) applying dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions with other trading parties, thereby placing them at a competitive disadvantage,
- (e) making the conclusion of contracts subject to the acceptance by the other parties of supplementary obligations which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of the contracts.

Meaning of merger and acquisition.

4. (1) A "merger or acquisition" occurs for the purposes of this Law when -

- (a) there is a transfer from one undertaking ("the transferor") to another ("the transferee") of the business of the transferor, or
- (b) an undertaking, or a person who controls an undertaking, directly or indirectly acquires or establishes control of -
 - (i) another undertaking, or
 - (ii) the business of another undertaking.

(2) Control of a business or undertaking may be direct or indirect and exists if decisive influence is capable of being exercised in respect of it.

In determining whether decisive influence exists there shall be taken into account, in addition to the ostensible effect in law of any document, transfer, assignment or other instrument, act or arrangement, all relevant facts and circumstances of the case.

(3) A merger or acquisition also occurs for the purposes of this Law -

- (a) if an undertaking acquires the whole or a substantial part of the assets of another undertaking and the result of the acquisition is to place the acquiring undertaking in a position to replace or substantially replace the other undertaking in the business in which it was engaged immediately before the acquisition, or
- (b) on the creation of a joint venture.

(4) A joint venture is created when a business previously carried on independently by two or more undertakings, or a new business, is carried on jointly by them, whether or not in partnership or by means of their joint control of, or ownership of shares in the capital of, a body corporate.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a merger or acquisition -

- (a) may be achieved in any manner, including -

- (i) by purchase, lease, acquisition of shares or assets, or by some other disposition or arrangement or by operation of law,
- (ii) by amalgamation of or other combination between undertakings or their businesses, and whether or not the parties to the merger or acquisition, or their business or assets, thereafter maintain identities which are distinct,

- (b) may be effected by a single transaction or by a series of two or more transactions, and
- (c) may take place whether or not any property is transferred by the transferor to the transferee.

(6) References in this section to an undertaking or business are references to the whole or any part of the undertaking or business.

Specific matters for which Ordinances may make provision.

5. An Ordinance under section 1 may, without limitation, make provision in relation to the following matters -

- (a) the prohibition, restriction or regulation of matters set out in section 1,
- (b) exceptions, exemptions and derogations from any such prohibition, restriction or regulation including, without limitation, exceptions, exemptions and derogations -

- (i) in the public interest,
 - (ii) as a matter of public policy,
 - (iii) for the benefit of consumers or any class or description thereof, or
 - (iv) on social, community, economic, ethical and other grounds,
- (c) the establishment of an office of Director General of Competition ("the Director General"), whether as an office of a department of the States or as a separate legal entity, with responsibility for the administration and enforcement of this Law and any Ordinance under section 1, and with such rights, liabilities, functions and capacity as may be specified by Ordinance,
- (d) the appointment, term of office and termination of office of the Director General,
- (e) the vesting of any right, liability, power and property in the Director General,
- (f) the investigation by the Director General of matters set out in section 1 and the making and publication by him of reports on those matters, whether at the direction of the Department or the States,

- (g) the Director General's powers of entry, inspection, search and inquiry for the purposes of -
 - (i) the administration and enforcement of any Ordinance under section 1,
 - (ii) carrying out investigations and making reports, and
 - (iii) generally for the performance of his functions,
- (h) the production, seizure, retention, use and disclosure of documents and information,
- (i) the obtaining and exchanging of information,
- (j) the service of documents,
- (k) the establishment by the Director General of his office, the appointment of his staff and the delegation of his functions,
- (l) the issue by the Director General of codes of practice, guidance and recommendations, and their status in law,
- (m) the imposition by the Director General of directions, orders, penalties (including, without limitation, financial penalties, whether calculated by reference to an undertaking's turnover or otherwise), interim measures and other sanctions,

- (n) the appointment by the Director General of any person or body to advise him in relation to the exercise of his functions,
- (o) the production and publication by the Director General of reports and accounts and the auditing of accounts,
- (p) the making of grants and loans to the Director General,
- (q) the establishment by the Director General of a fund and the status of that fund for income tax purposes,
- (r) the objectives to be promoted and the other matters to be taken into account by the Director General, the Department and the States in carrying out their respective functions under this Law and any Ordinance under it,
- (s) the giving to the Director General of directions and recommendations by the Department, the States or any other body,
- (t) co-operation and the provision of mutual assistance by the Director-General, in relation to matters set out in section 1, with or to authorities -
- (i) discharging functions corresponding to any of his own, or

- (ii) which are of any prescribed class or description,
 - (u) privilege and duties of confidentiality and exceptions, exemptions and derogations therefrom,
 - (v) the implementation of -
 - (i) any international instrument relating to matters set out in section 1 or any aspect thereof,
 - (ii) any right, power, liability, obligation, prohibition or restriction created or arising, or any remedy or procedure provided for, by or under any such international instrument,
- subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as may be specified in the Ordinance,
- (w) the administration and enforcement of any Ordinance under this Law including, without limitation, provision as to -
 - (i) appeals in relation to decisions in respect of such administration and enforcement,
 - (ii) modes of civil enforcement (including, without limitation, proceedings for injunctions),

- (iii) modes of criminal enforcement (but subject to section 6(5)),
- (iv) remedies in respect of contraventions of any prohibition, restriction, regulation, duty, obligation or requirement imposed by an Ordinance under this Law (but subject to section 6(5)), and
- (v) the establishment of a tribunal and a panel of persons from whom the members of the tribunal are to be drawn, and otherwise as to the administration of justice in relation to matters set out in section 1,

- (x) without prejudice to paragraph (w), the conferring on the Director General of power to require undertakings-
 - (i) to transfer, dispose of or enter into any other transaction or arrangement in respect of -
 - (A) any business or part thereof, or
 - (B) the control of any undertaking or business or any part thereof,
 - (ii) to carry on any business or part thereof or any joint venture subject to such conditions, restrictions and limitations as may be specified,

- (iii) to refrain from carrying on any business or part thereof or any joint venture or from entering into any transaction or arrangement or any class or description thereof,
- (iv) to transfer, dispose of or enter into any other transaction or arrangement in respect of any property or assets or the control, ownership, possession or use thereof,
- (y) the jurisdiction and powers of the courts, and the constitution and procedure of those courts, in relation to matters set out in section 1,
- (z) provision as to evidence including, without limitation, rules as to the admission of evidence and evidential presumptions,
- (aa) the authorisation of, and conferring of functions on, any person, body or office including, without limitation, the Director General of Competition, the Director General of Utility Regulation, the Department and the States (and their respective officers) for the purposes of the administration and enforcement of any Ordinance under this Law,
- (bb) the granting (conditionally or otherwise), refusal, variation, revocation and suspension of licences or other descriptions of authorisation or approval for the doing of anything restricted, regulated or controlled by an Ordinance under this Law,

- (cc) the making of applications for such licences, authorisations or approvals,
- (dd) the levying of fees, and
- (ee) the recovery of costs associated with the administration and enforcement of any Ordinance under this Law.

General provisions as to Ordinances, etc.

6. (1) The States may by Ordinance amend -

- (a) sections 2, 3 and 4 so as to amend the meanings of the expressions "abuse of a dominant position", "anti-competitive practice", "merger or acquisition", "control" and "joint venture", and
- (b) section 7(1) so as to amend the meaning of any expression defined therein or to define any other expression, where they consider it necessary or expedient to do so for the purpose of -

- (i) enabling the Director General more effectively to carry out any of his functions,

- (ii) enhancing or protecting the reputation or economic interests of Guernsey,
- (iii) enhancing or facilitating competition, or prohibiting, restricting or regulating the prevention of competition, in the interests of consumers or any class or description thereof or the operation of any market in Guernsey,
- (iv) discharging any international obligation to which Guernsey is subject, or
- (v) assisting, in the interests of the public or otherwise, any authority which appears to the States to discharge in a place outside Guernsey functions corresponding to any of the functions of the Director General.

The provisions of this subsection are without prejudice to any other provision of this Law conferring power to enact Ordinances (and vice versa).

(2) An Ordinance under this Law -

- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance hereunder, and
- (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional and savings provisions as may appear to be necessary or expedient (including, without limitation, provision making consequential amendments to this Law and any other enactment).

(3) Any power to make an Ordinance under this Law may be exercised -

(a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,

(b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised -

(i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),

(ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,

(iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions,

(iv) different provision for different classes, descriptions and categories of markets, businesses and undertakings.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this Law, an Ordinance under this Law -

- (a) may, subject to subsection (5), make provision in relation to the creation, trial (summarily or on indictment) and punishment of offences,
- (b) may empower the Department, any other department of the States and any other body (including, without limitation, any court in Guernsey) to make or issue orders, rules, regulations, codes or guidance, whether as to matters in respect of which an Ordinance can be made under this Law or otherwise,
- (c) may make provision for the purpose of dealing with matters arising out of or related to matters set out in section 1 or any international instrument relating to such matters,
- (d) may provide that no liability shall be incurred by any specified person, body or office in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in the discharge or purported discharge of any of their functions under the Ordinance unless the thing is done or omitted to be done in bad faith,
- (e) may make provision under the powers conferred by this Law notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force,
- (f) may repeal, replace, amend, extend, adapt, modify or disapply any rule of custom or law,

- (g) without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make any such provision of any such extent as might be made by Projet de Loi, but may not provide that a person is to be guilty of an offence as a result of any retrospective effect of the Ordinance.

(5) An Ordinance under this Law may not -

- (a) provide for offences to be triable only on indictment,
- (b) authorise the imposition, on summary conviction of an offence, of a term of imprisonment or a fine exceeding the limits of jurisdiction for the time being imposed on the Magistrate's Court by section 9 of the Magistrate's Court (Guernsey) Law, 2008, or
- (c) authorise the imposition, on conviction on indictment of any offence, of a term of imprisonment exceeding two years.
