PLANNING AND BUILDING (MOVEABLE STRUCTURES) (JERSEY) ORDER 2006

THE MINISTER FOR PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENT, in pursuance of Articles 81 and 124 of the Planning and Building \(Jersey\) Law 2002, orders as follows –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Interpretation

In this Order –

“application” means an application made in accordance with Article 3(2) or Article 9(1);

“by local advertisement”, in respect of an application, means in a manner –

- (a) that is likely to bring the application to the attention of the public of Jersey;
- (b) that advises members of the public of Jersey where they may obtain further details of the application; and
- (c) that advises members of the public of Jersey of the manner in which they may provide representations in respect of the application;

“by site display”, in respect of a notice, means by the posting of the notice by firm affixture to some object, sited and displayed in such a way as to be easily visible and legible by members of the public;

“decision-maker” means the Chief Officer or, as the case may be, the Planning Applications Committee;

“Law” means the Planning and Building \(Jersey\) Law 2002;

“protected site” means –

- (a) a site of special interest; or
- (b) a building included on a register published by the Minister of buildings of architectural, archaeological or historic interest.¹

2 Application²

This Order applies to a moveable structure that is to remain on the same land for 28 days or more in any period of 12 consecutive months.

3 Permission required to erect or station a moveable structure on land

- (1) A person must not erect or station on land a movable structure to which this Order applies except with and in accordance with the permission of the decision-maker.³
- (2) An application for permission must be made to the Chief Officer by the occupier of the land and (if different) by the owner of the land.⁴

4 Publicity for applications

- (1) An application must be publicized in accordance with this Article.
- (2) All applications will be publicized by the Chief Officer by local advertisement.⁵
- (3) An application must also be publicized by the applicant giving requisite notice by site display in at least one place on or near to the land or building where the moveable structure will be erected or stationed.
- (4) The notice –
 - (a) must be displayed within 3 days of the applicant receiving an acknowledgement of the receipt of the application; and
 - (b) must be displayed for at least 21 days.⁶
- (5) In paragraph (3) “requisite notice” means notice in the form set out in Schedule 1 or in a form substantially to the like effect.
- (6) This Article does not apply to any change in an application where the Chief Officer has advised the applicant that the change is so minor that the change does not need to be publicized in accordance with this Article.⁷

5 Evidence of compliance

- (1) An applicant must show the Chief Officer that the applicant has complied with Article 4(3) and (4) by requisite notice given to the Chief Officer accompanied by a copy of the relevant site notice displayed by the applicant.⁸
- (2) Article 10 of the Law shall apply to a notice given under paragraph (1) and the site notice accompanying it as if they were part of an application for planning permission.
- (3) In paragraph (1) “requisite notice” means notice in the form set out in Schedule 2 or in a form substantially to the like effect.

6 Providing representations in respect of an applications

- (1) Except as provided by paragraph (4), any representation in respect of an application must be provided to the Chief Officer within 21 days of the application –
 - (a) first being publicized by the Chief Officer by local advertisement in accordance with Article 4(2); or
 - (b) first being publicized by site display by the applicant in accordance with Article 4(3),whichever is the later.⁹
- (2) A representation must be provided in writing and must contain the name of the person providing the representation and details of how the person may be contacted.
- (3) It may contain such other information as the person providing the representation considers appropriate.
- (4) If the Chief Officer considers that it would be in the public interest to do so, the Chief Officer may extend the period of 21 days mentioned in paragraph (1) by such further period as the Chief Officer considers appropriate.¹⁰
- (5) The Chief Officer may do so before or at any time after the end of the period of 21 days.¹¹

7 Grant of permission to erect or station a moveable structure

- (1) When considering an application the decision-maker –
 - (a) will take into account all representations made to the Chief Officer; and
 - (b) will also take into account all material considerations including the effect the proposed moveable structure would have on the environment generally and in particular on the environment of any protected site; and
 - (c) will not grant permission to erect or station a moveable structure in a way that is inconsistent with the Island Plan unless he or she has been satisfied by the applicant that there is sufficient justification for doing so.¹²
- (2) The decision-maker may –
 - (a) grant permission to erect or station a moveable structure on land unconditionally or subject to conditions; or
 - (b) refuse to grant the permission sought.¹³

8 Conditions attached to the grant of permission to erect or station a moveable structure

The conditions the decision-maker may attach to the grant of permission to erect or station a moveable structure on land will fairly and reasonably relate to the proposed erection or stationing of the moveable structure and may, in particular –

- (a) control the type of movable structure that may be erected or stationed on the land;
- (b) regulate the position in which the movable structure is erected or stationed on the land;
- (c) require measures be taken to prevent and detect the outbreak of fire;
- (d) require that adequate sanitary and other facilities, services and equipment are available for the use of people using the movable structure.¹⁴

9 Grant of permission for moveable structure already erected or stationed¹⁵

- (1) The decision-maker may, on an application made to the Chief Officer, grant permission to erect or station a moveable structure on land where the moveable structure is already erected or stationed on the land –
 - (a) without permission; or
 - (b) without complying with a condition subject to which permission was given.¹⁶
- (2) The decision-maker may grant permission under paragraph (1) to have effect from the date the moveable structure was erected or stationed on the land.¹⁷

10 Revocation and modification of permission

- (1) The decision-maker may revoke or modify permission given under this Order by giving the occupier of the land to which it relates at least 7 days written notice.¹⁸
- (2) If permission is revoked in accordance with paragraph (1), the occupier of the land must remove the moveable structure or cause it to be removed before the end of the period specified in the notice.
- (3) If a notice under paragraph (1) requires any modification to be made to or in respect of a moveable structure, the modification must be made before the end of the period specified in the notice.
- (4) Articles 27(6) to (10) and 108 of the Law (in respect of compensation and appeals) shall apply to a decision to revoke or modify permission given under this Order as if it were a decision to revoke or modify planning permission.¹⁹
