MEDICINES (HEALTH PROFESSIONALS - EXEMPTION) (JERSEY) ORDER 2001<sup>1</sup>

THE HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES COMMITTEE in pursuance of Articles 56(1) and 57(4)(a) of the Medicines \(Jersey\) Law 1995, orders as follows –

Commencement [see endnotes]

1 Exemption

- (1) Articles 51, 52 and 57(2) of the Medicines \(Jersey\) Law 1995 shall have effect subject to the exemption specified in paragraph (2).
- (2) A relevant health professional authorized by the Department to do so may sell, supply or administer a medical product in accordance with a direction given by the Minister.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2), a direction given under that paragraph may specify –
  - (a) the period during which it has effect;
  - (b) the clinical criteria under which a person is eligible for treatment under the direction;
  - (c) any class of person excluded from treatment under the direction;
  - (d) any circumstance in which further advice must be sought from a doctor or dentist;
  - (e) any follow up action that must be taken in a specified circumstance;
  - (f) when a person must be referred for medical advice;
  - (g) details of any record to be kept of the sale, supply or administration of a medical product in accordance with the direction;
  - (h) the medical product to which the direction relates; and
  - (i) details in respect of the sale, supply or administration of that medical product as specified in paragraph (4).

- (4) Those details in respect of the sale, supply or administration of the medical product are –
- (a) the clinical situation in which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (b) the pharmaceutical form in which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (c) the strength or maximum strength at which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (d) the dosage or maximum dosage at which it may be administered;
  - (e) the route by which it may be administered;
  - (f) its frequency of administration;
  - (g) any minimum or maximum period during which it may be sold, supplied or administered;
  - (h) any restriction on the quantity that may be sold, supplied or administered on any one occasion;
  - (i) any warning or other relevant information applicable to the medical product and the manner in which the warning or information is to be given or provided.
- (5) In this Article –
- “Department” means the Health and Social Service Department;
- “health professional” means a person authorized to practise in Jersey as an ambulance paramedic, optometrist, or orthoptist or as a chiropodist, specialist community public health nurse, nurse, midwife, pharmacist, physiotherapist or radiographer;
- “relevant health professional” means a health professional who –
- (a) is employed by the Department; or
  - (b) has entered into an agreement with the Department to sell, supply or administer a medical product in accordance with this Order.<sup>2</sup>
