SCHEDULE

PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Statements Obtained Under Compulsion (Restriction of Use) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2009

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 27th May, 2009^a has approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Amendment of provisions relating to the use of statements obtained under compulsion.

1. In the statutes listed in Column 1 of the Schedule, the provisions listed in Column 2 are replaced by the provisions detailed in Column 3.

Amendment of the Schedule.

2. The Schedule may be amended by Ordinance of the States where –

- (a) a provision in a statute provides that a statement obtained under compulsion may be used in evidence and the proposed amendment limits the use of such statements, or
- (b) a provision in a statute provides that a statement obtained under compulsion may not be used in evidence in proceedings and the proposed amendment permits the use of such statements –

^a Article IV of Billet d'État No. XIII of 2009.

- (i) in proceedings other than criminal proceedings,
- (ii) in proceedings for making a false statement,
- (iii) in proceedings for perjury,
- (iv) in proceedings for perverting the course of justice,
- (v) in proceedings for contempt of court.

Interpretation.

3. (1) In this Law, unless the context requires otherwise –

"States" means, in relation to each statute, whichever of the States of Deliberation, States of Alderney or Chief Pleas of Sark approved the statute in order for it to have effect,

"statute" means Laws and Ordinances which apply in any one or more of the Islands in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

(2) Any reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference thereto as from time to time amended, re-enacted (with or without modification), extended or applied.

(3) The provisions of the Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948^b apply to the interpretation of this Law throughout the Bailiwick.

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. XIII, p. 355.

NOTE

The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948 has since been repealed by the Interpretation and Standard Provisions (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2016, section 28(a), with effect from 1st October, 2018.

General provisions as to subordinate legislation.

4. (1) An Ordinance under this Law –
- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance hereunder, and
 - (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional and savings provisions as may appear to be necessary or expedient including, without limitation, provisions repealing, amending or modifying any enactment (whether passed before or after the commencement of this Law).
- (2) Any power conferred by this Law to make any Ordinance, may be exercised –
- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,
 - (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –
 - (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),

- (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,
- (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions.

Citation.

5. This Law may be cited as the Statements Obtained Under Compulsion (Restriction of Use) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2009.
