PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States (Transfer of Functions) Law, 1971

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the thirtieth day of April, nineteen hundred and seventy, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Transfer of powers and functions.

1. (1) The powers and functions vested in the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States, by whatever name that office is described, under or by virtue of the provisions of any Law in force immediately prior to the date of the coming into force of this Law are hereby transferred to and vested in the chief executive officer of the States Advisory and Finance Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the States Supervisor").

(2) In addition to the powers and functions transferred and vested under the provisions of the last preceding subsection there are also hereby so transferred and vested all rights and liabilities enjoyed by, or incumbent on, the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States in, or as a result of, the exercise of those powers or functions.

NOTE

In accordance with the provisions of the Machinery of Government

(Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2003, respectively section 2, Schedule 1, paragraph 1(a) and section 3, with effect from 6th May, 2004, the States Advisory and Finance Committee and the States Supervisor have since been replaced by the Policy Council and the Chief Executive of the States of Guernsey, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 4 of the 2003 Ordinance; and the functions, rights and liabilities of the States Advisory and Finance Committee and of its President arising under or by virtue of this Law have been transferred to and vested in, respectively, the Policy Council and its Minister by the Machinery of Government (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2003, section 1, Schedule 1, paragraph 1(a), with effect from that same date.

Savings.

2. (1) Nothing done by, or in relation to, the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States under or as a consequence of the powers or functions transferred under the provisions of subsection (1) of the last preceding section before the coming into force of this Law shall be invalidated by the coming into force thereof.

(2) Anything in process of being done under any of the provisions referred to in section one of this Law by, or in relation to, the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States at the date of the coming into force of this Law, whether by way of legal proceedings or otherwise, may be continued by, or in relation to, the States Supervisor.

Transfer of powers and functions by Ordinance.

3. (1) The States may, from time to time, by Ordinance transfer to and vest in any committee of the States or any officer of the States specified in the Ordinance any of the powers and functions transferred to and vested in the States Supervisor under the provisions of subsection (1) of section one of this Law.

(2) An Ordinance made under the provisions of the last preceding subsection may provide for any incidental and supplementary matters for which the States deem it necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Ordinance to provide.

NOTE

The following Ordinance has been made under section 3:

States Supervisor (Transfer of Functions) (No. 1) Ordinance, 1972.

Change of reference.

4. Any reference in any Law in force immediately prior to the date of the coming into force of this Law to any of the following expressions, that is to say –

" the States Supervisor
 the Treasurer of the States
 le Supérieur des États
 le Supérieur et Trésorier des États le Supérieur de la Chaussée et Trésorier des États le Supérieur de la Chaussée le Trésorier des États " shall be construed as a reference to the States Supervisor.

Interpretation.

5. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say –

"officer of the States" means a person employed by the States in such circumstances that the States have the right to require that he shall devote the whole of his services to such employment during all the hours of work normally applicable thereto,

"the States" means the States of Guernsey.

Citation.

6. This Law may be cited as the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States (Transfer of Functions) Law, 1971.

Commencement.

7. This Law shall come into force on such date as the States may by Ordinance appoint.

NOTE

The Law was brought into force on 1st April, 1972 by the States Supervisor and Treasurer of the States (Transfer of Functions) Law, 1971 (Commencement) Ordinance, 1972, section 1.
