(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the conditions which may be imposed in respect of a fiduciary licence may make provision as to the duration of the licence and for the protection of the clients of the licensed fiduciary; and such conditions may -

- (a) require the licensed fiduciary to take certain steps, to refrain from adopting or pursuing a particular course of action or to restrict the scope of its business in a particular way;
- (b) impose limitations on the acceptance or carrying on of business;
- (c) prohibit the licensed fiduciary from soliciting (whether at all or in any specified manner) business, either generally or from persons who are not already clients;
- (d) prohibit the licensed fiduciary from entering into any other transaction or class of transactions;

- (e) require the removal of any director, controller, manager, partner or employee of the licensed fiduciary;
- (f) specify requirements to be fulfilled otherwise than by action taken by the licensed fiduciary;
- (g) require the furnishing to the Commission, at such times, intervals and places as may be specified by the Commission, of such information and documents, and of accounts of such description, in such form and containing such information and particulars, as may be so specified;
- (h) specify requirements as to the capitalisation and margin of solvency of the business of the licensed fiduciary;
- (i) require the licensed fiduciary to obtain professional indemnity insurance in such amount and upon such terms and conditions as may be specified.

(5) A licensed fiduciary which contravenes any condition of a fiduciary licence is guilty of an offence.

(6) The contravention of a condition of a fiduciary licence shall, whether or not constituting an offence under subsection (5), be a ground for the revocation of the licence but shall not of itself invalidate any transaction completed under the authority of the licence before the date of revocation.

(7) A licensed fiduciary whose fiduciary licence is subject to a condition as to its duration may apply under section 5 for a new fiduciary licence and, if that licence is granted, the restricted licence shall cease to have effect.

(8) In considering whether or not to impose, vary or rescind any condition in respect of a fiduciary licence the Commission may, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, have regard to any matter to which it may have regard under section 6 or 8 when considering whether or not to grant an application for a fiduciary licence or to revoke a fiduciary licence.

Notice of refusal, etc, of fiduciary licences.

10. (1) Where the Commission decides -

- (a) to refuse a fiduciary licence; or
- (b) otherwise than with the agreement of the licensed fiduciary concerned -
 - (i) to revoke a fiduciary licence; or
 - (ii) to impose, vary or rescind any condition in respect of a fiduciary licence;

the Commission shall serve upon the applicant or (as the case may be) the licensed fiduciary concerned notice in writing of the decision setting out, where appropriate, particulars of the condition in question.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall state the grounds of the Commission's decision and shall give particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19.

(3) Where -

- (a) a ground for a decision mentioned in subsection (1) is that any criterion of paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 is not or has not been fulfilled, or may not be or may not have been fulfilled, in the case of any person; or
- (b) a condition of a fiduciary licence requires the removal of any person as a director, controller, partner, manager or employee;

the Commission shall serve upon that person a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (1) (which copy may omit any matter which does not relate to that person) together with particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19.

Surrender of fiduciary licences.

11. (1) A licensed fiduciary may surrender his fiduciary licence by notice in writing served upon the Commission.

(2) A surrender shall take effect upon service of the notice or such later date as may be specified therein; and where a later date is so specified, the licensed fiduciary may by a further notice in writing served upon the Commission substitute an earlier date upon which the surrender is to take effect, not being earlier than the date upon which the first notice was served.

(3) The surrender of a fiduciary licence shall be irrevocable unless it is expressed to take effect on a particular date and before that date the Commission, upon the written application of the licensed fiduciary, by notice in writing to the licensed fiduciary allows the surrender to be withdrawn.

(4) Where, on receipt of an application under subsection (3), the Commission decides not to allow the surrender of a fiduciary licence to be withdrawn -

- (a) it shall give written notice of its decision to the licensed fiduciary, setting out particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19; and
- (b) without prejudice to the powers of the Commission conferred otherwise than by this section, the surrender shall not have effect before the end of the period within which, under section 19, an appeal can be brought or, if an appeal is brought within that period, before the appeal is determined or withdrawn.

(5) Upon the surrender of a fiduciary licence no fee paid by the licensed fiduciary concerned pursuant to regulations under section 7 shall be refundable.

Directions

- (c) at any time after a licensed fiduciary has served a notice under section 11 surrendering his fiduciary licence (whether or not with immediate effect); or
- (d) in the case of a licensed fiduciary whose fiduciary licence is subject to a condition as to its duration, upon the expiry of the licence or at any time thereafter;

give the licensed fiduciary such directions as appear to the Commission to be desirable in the interests of the clients of the fiduciary, whether for the purpose of safeguarding assets or otherwise.

- (e) require the removal of any director, controller, partner, manager or employee.

(3) No direction shall be given by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1), and any direction given by virtue of either of those paragraphs shall cease to have effect, if -

- (a) the Commission serves upon the licensed fiduciary concerned notice in writing that it no longer proposes to revoke his fiduciary licence; or
- (b) the Commission's decision to revoke the fiduciary licence is reversed on appeal.

(4) No direction shall be given by virtue of paragraph (c) of subsection (1), and any direction given by virtue of that paragraph shall cease to have effect -

- (a) if the Commission allows the licensed fiduciary, under section 11(3), to withdraw the surrender of his fiduciary licence; or
- (b) in cases where the Commission decides not to allow the licensed fiduciary, under section 11(3), to withdraw the surrender of his fiduciary licence, if the Commission's decision is set aside on appeal under section 19.

(5) A licensed fiduciary who contravenes any provision of a direction under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(6) A contravention by a licensed fiduciary of a direction under subsection (1) shall not of itself invalidate any transaction completed under the authority of the fiduciary licence concerned.

(7) Where a direction under subsection (1) requires the removal of a person as director, controller, partner, manager or employee of a licensed fiduciary, the Commission shall serve upon that person a copy of the direction (which copy may omit any matter which does not relate to him) together with particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19.

(8) The Commission may vary or rescind any direction under subsection (1) by notice in writing served upon the licensed fiduciary concerned.

(9) Directions under subsection (1) shall give particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19.

Information as to fiduciaries

Publication of names of licensed fiduciaries.

13. (1) The Commission shall, in January each year, cause to be published in La Gazette Officielle a list of all persons holding fiduciary licences; and the list shall state, in relation to each person mentioned, the category of fiduciary licence held by him.

(2) The Commission shall make available to any person, on request and on payment of such charge (if any) as the Commission may reasonably demand to cover the cost of preparation, a list of all persons holding fiduciary licences.

(3) The Commission shall publish the fact that a person has ceased to hold a fiduciary licence, whether by virtue of the revocation, surrender or expiry of the licence or otherwise.

(4) The Commission may also publish the fact that a particular person has been granted or refused a fiduciary licence or that a particular person does not hold or has not held a fiduciary licence.

(5) Any list or publication under this section may contain such information (if any) in respect of all or any of the persons named therein as the Commission may think desirable or expedient.

Notification of and objection to controllers.

14. (1) No person shall become -

- (a) a shareholder controller or an indirect controller of a licensed fiduciary which is a company; or unless he has notified the Commission in writing of his intention to become such a controller or partner and the Commission has notified him in writing that there is no objection to his becoming such a controller or partner.

Order in Council No. I of 2001

(2) Following receipt of notification under subsection (1) from any person, the Commission may by notice in writing require him to furnish such additional information or documents as the Commission may require for the purpose of deciding whether or not to serve a notice of objection.

(3) The Commission may serve a notice of objection under this section if it is not satisfied -

- (a) that the person concerned is a fit and proper person to become a controller of the description in question, or a partner, of the licensed fiduciary;
- (b) that the interests of clients of the licensed fiduciary would not in any other manner be threatened by that person becoming a controller of that description or a partner; or
- (c) without prejudice to paragraphs (a) and (b), that, having regard to that person's likely influence on the licensed fiduciary as a controller of the description in question or as a partner-
 - (i) the criteria of Schedule 1 would continue to be fulfilled -
 - (A) in relation to that licensed fiduciary; and
 - (B) where a full fiduciary licence is held, in relation to any person who is or is to be a director, controller, partner, manager or employee of that licensed fiduciary;

or

- (ii) if any of those criteria were not so fulfilled, that that person would be likely to undertake remedial action.

which the Commission is not satisfied; and
- (b) give particulars of the right of appeal conferred by

or
- (b) becomes or continues to be such a controller or partner after a notice of objection has been served on him under section 14 or 15;

is guilty of an offence unless he shows that he was not aware of the acts or circumstances by virtue of which he became a controller of the description in question or partner; but in such a case he shall be guilty of the offence if he fails to give the Commission notice in writing of the fact that he has become a controller of the description in question or partner within a period of 14 days immediately following the day on which he becomes so aware.

Restrictions on sale of shares.

17. (1) The powers conferred by this section are exercisable where a person has become a shareholder controller in contravention of section 14(1) or has become or continued to be such a controller after a notice of objection has been served on him under section 14 or 15.

(2) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on the person concerned, direct that any specified shares to which this section applies shall, until further notice, be subject to all or any of the following restrictions -

- (a) any transfer of, or agreement to transfer, those shares or, in the case of unissued shares, any transfer of, or agreement to transfer, the right to be issued with them, shall be void;

- (b) no voting right shall be exercisable in respect of those shares;
- (c) no further shares shall be issued in right of them or in pursuance of any offer made to their holder;
- (d) except in a liquidation, no payment shall be made of any sum due on the shares from the licensed fiduciary, whether in respect of capital or otherwise.

(3) The Court, on the application of the Commission, may order the sale of any specified shares to which this section applies and, if the shares are subject to restrictions under subsection (2), that they shall cease to be subject thereto.

(4) No order shall be made under subsection (3) in a case where a notice of objection has been served under section 14 or 15 -

- (a) until the end of the period within which, under section 19, an appeal can be brought against the notice of objection; or
- (b) if such an appeal is brought within that period, until the appeal is dismissed or withdrawn.

(5) Where an order is made under subsection (3) the Court may, on the application of the Commission, make such further order relating to the sale or transfer of the shares as it thinks fit.

(6) Where shares are sold pursuant to an order under subsection (3), the proceeds of sale, less the costs of the sale, shall be paid to Her Majesty's Sheriff for the benefit of the persons beneficially interested in them, and any such person may apply to the Court for an order for the whole or part of the proceeds to be paid to him; and in this subsection "Her Majesty's Sheriff" means-

- (a) where the order was made by the Court of Alderney, the Clerk of the Court of Alderney;

- (b) in cases where the person in question became a controller of the relevant description of a licensed fiduciary as a result of the acquisition by him or any associate of his of shares in another company, to all shares in that other company which are held by him or any associate of his and which were not so held before he became such a controller of that licensed fiduciary.

(8) A copy of the notice served on the person concerned under subsection (2) shall be served on the licensed fiduciary or company to whose shares the notice relates and, if the notice relates to shares held by an associate of that person, on that associate.

(9) A notice served on the person concerned under subsection (2) shall give particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19; and any direction contained in the notice may be varied by a further direction or rescinded by the Commission by notice in writing to that person.

(10) In this section "the Court" means -

(a) where the person against whom the order under subsection (3) is sought is within the jurisdiction of the Court of Alderney or the Court of the Seneschal, the Court of Alderney or, as the case may be, the Court of the Seneschal;

18. (1) Where the Commission makes a decision in respect of which a right of appeal is conferred by section 19, the person upon whom the right of appeal is conferred may, whether or not he institutes an appeal, but subject to the provisions of subsection (2), require the Commission to furnish him with a written statement of the reasons for the decision.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not require the Commission to specify any reason which would in its opinion involve the disclosure of confidential information the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to -

- (a) a criminal or regulatory investigation (whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere);
- (b) co-operation or relations with investigatory, regulatory or prosecuting authorities in any other place; or
- (c) a third party.

(3) Where, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2), the Commission omits any matter from a statement of reasons, it shall inform the person concerned of the fact that there has been such an omission and give particulars of the right of appeal conferred by section 19.

the person to whom the ground relates or whose removal is required may appeal to the Court against the finding that there is a ground for the decision or, as the case may be, against the decision to require his removal.

(3) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Commission to serve a notice of objection on him under section 14 or 15 may appeal to the Court against the decision.

(4) The grounds of an appeal under this section shall be that the decision was ultra vires or was an unreasonable exercise of the Commission's powers.

(8) On an appeal under this section against a decision described in subsection (1)(c) or (f) the Court may, upon the application of the appellant, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, suspend or modify the operation of the condition or direction in question, or the variation or rescission thereof, pending the determination of the appeal.

^h O.R.C. No. VII of 1989.

(9) For the purposes of determining an appeal under this section against a decision described in subsection (1)(g) to omit, pursuant to section 18(2), any matter from a statement of reasons, the Court may examine the information the disclosure of which the Commission considers would be prejudicial; and the information shall not, pending the determination of the appeal, be disclosed to the appellant or any person representing him.

(3) A person who fails to give notice in accordance with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence unless he shows that he was not aware that the facts were such as to require the giving of such notice; but in such a case he shall be guilty of the offence if he fails to give such notice within a period of 14 days immediately following the day upon which he becomes so aware.

Obtaining of information

Power to obtain information and documents.

23. (1) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on a licensed fiduciary, require him to provide the Commission -

- (a) at such times or intervals, at such place and in respect of such periods as may be specified in the notice, with such information as the Commission may reasonably require for the performance of its functions;

- (b) with a report, in such form as may be specified in the notice, by a person who is an accountant or who otherwise has relevant professional skill and who is nominated or approved by the Commission on, or on any aspect of, any matter in relation to which the Commission may require information under paragraph (a).

(4) The power conferred by this section to require a person to produce any documents includes power -

(a) if the documents are produced, to take copies of them or extracts from them and to require-

(i) that person; or to provide an explanation of them; and

(b) if the documents are not produced, to require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.

(5) If it appears to the Commission to be desirable in the interests of the clients of a licensed fiduciary to do so, the Commission may also exercise the powers conferred by this section in relation to -

Order in Council No. I of 2001

(6) For the purposes of this Law a "related company", in relation to the company in question, means any company (other than one which is a group company in relation to the company in question) in which the company in question holds for a significant period a qualifying capital interest for the purpose of securing a contribution to the company in question's own activities by the exercise of any control or influence arising from that interest.

(7) For the purposes of this Law a "qualifying capital interest" means, in relation to any company, an interest in shares comprised in the equity share capital of that company of a class carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at general meetings of that company.

(8) Where -
